John Ayshford Wyse, Esq. to be Deputy Lieutenant.
Dated 1st March 1832.

Commission signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Stafford.

John Wrottesley, Esq. to be Deputy Lieutenant.
Dated 17th March 1832.

Whitehall, March 23, 1832.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed George Frederick Fairclough, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, March 20, 1832.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about seven o'clock in the evening of Wednesday the 7th day of March instant, as Mr. John Jobling, of Seaton-lodge, was riding on his way home from Walker, when in the lane leading from the North Shields turnpike to Longbenton, in the county of Northumberland, he was maliciously shot at and wounded by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired at and wounded the said John Jobling) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on application to Messrs. Carr and Jobling, or Messrs. Swan and Hemsley, Solicitors, Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

THE Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having certified to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, in pursuance of the Act, 10th Geo. 4th, c. 27, s. 1, that the actual Expenditure of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland exceeded the actual Revenue thereof, for the year ended the 5th day of January 1832, by the sum of six hundred and ninety-eight thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven pounds, five shillings, and eleven pence halfpenny;

The Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt hereby give notice, that no sum will be applied by them on account of the Sinking Fund, under the provisions of the said Act, between the 5th day of April 1832 and the 5th day of July 1832.

THE following is a copy of an Order of His Majesty in Council, making the chapels of Morley and Gildersome, in the parish of Batley, churches of districts, under the 21st section of 58 Geo. 3, c. 45:

At the Court at St. James's, the 22d day of February 1832, present, the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is amongst other things enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act, shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his or their consent to make such divisions, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto, under his or their hand and seal, and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid; to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments, which will by such division arise and accrue and remain and be within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits, which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if thereupon His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made; such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;" and whereas by the said Act it is further enacted, "that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish, or extra parochial place, into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the Bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary, for the purpose of affording accommodation, for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who
