NOTICE is hereby given, that the Queen's Drawing-Rooms are postponed till further notice.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 22d day of February 1832,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, on the fourteenth day of February one thousand eight hundred and six, a proclamation was issued by Major-General Sir David Baird, then administering the Government of the colony of the Cape of Good Hope, respecting the duties to be levied on grain to be imported into the said colony; and whereas, on the thirtieth day of May one thousand eight hundred and six, a Government advertisement was published within the said colony, by order of the said Sir David Baird, respecting the duties of import and export to be levied within the said colony; and whereas, on the eleventh day of June one thousand eight hundred and six, His late Majesty King George the Third, with the advice of His Privy Council, was pleased to make a certain Order respecting goods imported into the said colony from any other part of His Majesty's dominions; and whereas, on the thirteenth day of May one thousand eight hundred and seven, His said late Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council, made an Order respecting duties on goods imported into the said colony, not being the produce of the United Kingdom; and whereas, on the eighteenth day of September one thousand eight hundred and seven, the Earl of Caledon, the then Governor of the said colony, in pursuance of the last mentioned Order in Council, issued a certain proclamation respecting the duties payable within the said colony, on foreign goods imported therein; and whereas, on the twelfth day of April one thousand eight hundred and nine, His said late Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council, made an Order respecting the duties on goods imported into the said colony in foreign and in British vessels; and whereas, in pursuance of the said Order in Council, the said Earl of Caledon published within the said colony a proclamation for carrying the same into effect; and whereas, on the twenty-third day of April one thousand eight hundred and eleven, a certain Government advertisement was published within the said colony, by command of the said Earl of Caledon, respecting the trade to be carried on between the said colony and New South Wales, and the island of Ceylon; and whereas, on the ninth of October one thousand eight hundred and eleven, Lieutenant-General Sir John Francis Craik, then administering the Government of the said colony, published a proclamation respecting the mode in which the amount of duties of import and export should be estimated within the said colony; and whereas, on
