

mand of the ship, vessel, or boat in which any such wine may be, with a certificate specifying the number of such packages as aforesaid, and the quantity of wine contained in each, the date of the bond, and the name of the port or place to or for which the same shall be so declared; and such bond, so given as aforesaid, shall not be delivered up or cancelled until a certificate, under the hand of the proper officer of the customs in Great Britain or Ireland, of the due landing of the wine mentioned therein, shall be produced to, and left with, the officer taking the said bond, within three months after the date of such bond.

And be it further enacted, that every person who shall be found or discovered to have been on board any vessel or boat liable to forfeiture under any Act relating to the revenue of customs, for being found within one league of the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, or Sark, having on board or in any manner attached or affixed thereto, or having had on board, or in any manner attached or affixed thereto, or conveying, or having conveyed, in any manner, such goods or other things as subject such vessel or boat to forfeiture, or who shall be found or discovered to have been on board any vessel or boat from which any part of the cargo shall have been thrown overboard during chase, or staved or destroyed, shall forfeit the sum of one hundred pounds.

And be it further enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any person to re-export, from any of His Majesty's possessions abroad to any foreign place, any coals the produce of the United Kingdom; and that no such coals shall be shipped at any of such possessions, to be exported to any British place, until the exporter or the master of the exporting vessel shall have given bond, with one sufficient surety in double the value of the coals, that such coals shall not be landed at any foreign place.

And whereas it is expedient, that all those parts of the said recited Act of the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, which are herein-before particularly recited and set forth should be extended and applied to the said colony of the Cape of Good Hope; His Majesty doth, therefore, with the advice of His Privy Council, and in further pursuance and exercise of the powers so vested in him as aforesaid by the said last recited Act of Parliament, order, and it is hereby ordered, that all and every the enactments, provisions, and declarations in the said Act, so passed in the sixth year of the reign of His said late Majesty as aforesaid, so far as the same are herein-before recited, shall be and they are hereby extended to and declared to be in force within the said colony of the Cape of Good Hope, as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as the same are by force and virtue of the said Act extended to and declared to be in force within the British possessions in America.

Provided, nevertheless, and it is further ordered, that within the meaning and for the purposes of the said Act, the several ports of Cape-town, Simon's-town, and Port Elizabeth, shall be, and be deemed to be, free ports; and the said ports of Cape-town and Simon's-town shall be, and be deemed to be, free warehousing ports; and from and after the day on which this present Order shall be promulgated within the said colony, all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures in the said Act contained, respecting the free ports and the free warehousing ports therein mentioned, shall extend; and be deemed and construed to extend, to the said ports of Cape-town, Simon's-town, and Port Elizabeth, as free ports, and to the said ports of Cape-town and Simon's-town, as free warehousing ports, as fully and effectually as if the same were respectively inserted and enumerated in the table of free ports and of free warehousing ports in the said Act contained:

And provided also, and it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for any person, who shall have duly made entry at either of the said ports of Cape-town and Simon's-town, of any goods to be there lodged in the warehouse, and who shall in all other respects have complied with the law respecting the warehousing of such goods, to tranship the same, within the limits of such port, into any vessel, without the actual landing thereof on shore, if such person shall in all respects comply with and observe such regulations as may be made for effecting any such transhipment by the Lords Commissioners for the time being of His Majesty's Treasury; which regulations shall by the said Lords Commissioners be signified to the Chief Officer of His Majesty's Customs at each of the said respective ports, through the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs:

And whereas by the said Act, so passed as aforesaid in the sixth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth, it is further enacted, "that if any of the goods therein mentioned shall be imported into any of the British possessions in America, through the United Kingdom (having been warehoused therein, and exported from the warehouse, or the duties thereon, if then paid, having been drawn back), one tenth part of the duties by the said Act imposed shall be remitted in respect of such goods; and if any of the goods therein mentioned shall be imported through the United Kingdom, not from the warehouse, but after all duties of importation for home use thereon shall have been paid thereon, in the said United Kingdom, and not drawn back, such goods shall be free of all duties by the said Act imposed;" it is hereby further ordered, that a similar abatement or remission, as the case may be, shall be made, in respect of the duties imposed by this present Order, in respect of all goods imported into the said colony:

And it is further ordered, that the Governor, or the Officer for the time being administering the Government, of the said colony shall, and is hereby required, to promulgate this present Order within one calendar month next after the receipt thereof by him; and this Order shall take effect within the said colony, and have the force of law there, upon, from, and after the date of such promulgation thereof as aforesaid, and not before:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain. C. C. Greville.
