Public Vendue of Coffee Estates, in Berbice.

ON Wednesday the 12th of December 1832, and following days, will be sold, at public vendue, by order of John Alves and John Downer, Esqrs. Curators to the estate of Richard Clarke Downer, deceased, as thereto specially authorised by his Honour Charles Wray, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of British Guiana;

The coffee estates Belle Vue and Lust-tot-Rust, with slaves, cultivation, buildings, &c. viz.

Plantation Belle Vue, known on the general chart of the Colony as lot No. 8, on the east bank of the River Berbice, containing, as per grant, 500 acres of land, bounded by the sugar estate Everton on the north, and the coffee estate Rotterdam on the south. The cultivation consists of 220,000 coffee trees and extensive plantain walks, and the requisite buildings and machinery for taking off a large crop, all in perfect repair, consisting of a large logie, of the best materials, tiled droghery, mosse logie, with a four horse power steam-engine, pulping and stamping mills, with planquire, dwelling-house, hospital, creole and jaws' houses, with extensive and comfortable negro houses, and the slaves (200 in number), a healthy, well-disposed, able set of people.

Plantation Lust-tot-Rust, known in the general chart as lots Nos. 30 and 31, west bank of the River Berbice, containing, as per grant, 1,000 acres. The cultivation of this estate consists of 160,000 coffee trees, with plantains sufficient for the gang; the buildings and requisite works for taking off the crop are all in good order, and the number of 155 slaves, not surpassed by any equal number of labourers in the Colony.

These estates are well known as some of the most fertile lands in British Guiana. Belle Vue is only four miles from New Amsterdam, to which there is a capital public road, and from its situation, on a turn in the river, commands the most beautiful and extensive views, on the one hand of the entrance of the river, with the town and shipping, and on the other (both sides of the river studded with estates) to the distance of eight or ten miles.

The drainage of both properties is perfect, and every facility attends the shipping of produce or landing supplies.

The slaves will be provisionally sold in families, and again set up with the lands, in the hope of inducing some person to purchase in the properties as they stand.

The terms of sale will be made known on application at the Vendue-Office of Berbice, and at the Counting-House of Messrs. Davidsons, Barkly, and Co. London, where also inventories of the estates and registered lists and description of the slaves may be seen.

(Signed) CHARLES KYTE, Deputy Vendue Master.
