

DEPARTMENT OF THE ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL OF THE NAVY.

Admiralty-Office, June 21, 1832.

To Holders of Navy and Victualling Bills of Exchange.

NOTICE is hereby given, that all bills drawn upon the late Navy and Victualling Boards are in future to be left for acceptance at the Office of the Accountant-General of the Navy, at the late Navy-Office, Somerset-house.

Arrangements have been made for the delivery of the bills generally, if regular, the day after they shall have been left for acceptance, provided they shall have been left before eleven o'clock A. M.

In future, in pursuance of the Act of the second of William the Fourth, cap. 40, all bills of exchange are to be drawn upon the Accountant-General of the Navy.

John Barrow.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Trustees acting in execution of the powers of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the tenth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for taking down the parish church of St. Dunstan in the West, in the city of London, and building a new church in lieu thereof," intend, in pursuance of the 54th section of the said Act, to resell and dispose of a certain freehold messuage or tenement, situate and being No. 186, in Fleet-street, in the said city, which hath been purchased by them, the said Trustees, and is not required for the purposes of the said Act; and if any one or more of the persons who were entitled to the said messuage or tenement, or any estate of freehold therein, is or are desirous to purchase the same, notice in writing, signed by such person or persons, of such his or their desire, must, in pursuance of the said section, be left with me, the undersigned, within one calendar month next after this present advertisement.

John Hopkins, Clerk to the said Trustees.

Vestry Clerk's Office, Fetter-lane,
July 6, 1832.
