

Admiralty, marked in the same manner, and a bill will thereupon be made out and transmitted to them.

If they reside near a Dock-yard, and desire to receive it there, they are to give notice of such desire to the Superintendent, in order that the necessary measures may be taken for obtaining the requisite extract from the Half-pay List, and the consequent authority for payment.

In all cases, the Officer signifying his desire of payment is to state at the foot of his letter, his Christian and surnames, his rank, and a full description of his residence:

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act of 11 Geo. 4, cap. 29, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.

DEPARTMENT OF THE ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL OF THE NAVY.

Admiralty-Office, June 21, 1832.

To Holders of Navy and Victualling Bills of Exchange.

NOTICE is hereby given, that all bills drawn upon the late Navy and Victualling Boards are in future to be left for acceptance at the Office of the Accountant-General of the Navy, at the late Navy-Office, Somerset-house.

Arrangements have been made for the delivery of the bills generally, if regular, the day after they shall have been left for acceptance, provided they shall have been left before eleven o'clock A. M.

In future, in pursuance of the Act of the second of William the Fourth, cap. 40, all bills of exchange are to be drawn upon the Accountant-General of the Navy.

John Barrow.
