

gracious patronage and protection, we cannot but feel, that we have more than ordinary cause of attachment to your Majesty's person and government. Most ardently, therefore, do we congratulate your Majesty and our country, that, through the merciful interposition of Divine providence, the peril which threatened your Majesty's sacred life, has been happily averted, and that these realms have been saved from the infliction of a dreadful calamity.

That your Majesty may long continue in health, happiness, and peace, to reign over a grateful, prosperous, and contented people, is the fervent prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and devoted subjects and servants.

[Here follow the signatures.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Doncaster, in the West Riding of the County of York.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal, dutiful, and devoted subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the borough of Doncaster, beg permission most humbly to approach your Throne and tender to your Majesty our unfeigned and heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's providential escape from the treasonable attack and designs of an infatuated individual, and to express our horror of so atrocious an attempt upon your royal person.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign over this prosperous nation in health and peace, and that the inestimable blessings which your Majesty's wisdom and firmness have secured to your happy and devoted subjects may, under your Majesty's just and mild Government, be long continued to a grateful people, is the earnest prayer of your Majesty's most faithful subjects.

Given under the common seal of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the borough of Doncaster, in the county of York, the 9th day of July 1832. Fisher, Town Clerk.

Whitehall, July 20, 1832.

THE following Addresses to the King, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the county of Ayr, assembled here this day by public advertisement, beg leave to approach the Throne with the assurance of our deep grief and indignation at the late most atrocious and treasonable attack upon your Majesty's sacred person, and of our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's escape from any serious injury.

We pray your Majesty may be assured of our continued loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's royal person and family.

That your Majesty's valuable life may be long preserved to the prayers and wishes of your people; that a heavenly Providence may shield your Majesty from all dangers; and that your Majesty may long reign over a free, a loyal, and a happy people, is our most earnest prayer.

Signed by our Preses, in our names, in our presence, and by our appointment, at Ayr, the 13th day of July 1832. Glasgow, Preses.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses, and other the Inhabitants of the borough of Abingdon, in the county of Berks, beg leave to express our attachment and devotion to your Majesty, and our horror and detestation at the late atrocious attack on your royal person at Ascot-heath.

We feel deeply that an individual should be found among your Majesty's subjects, who could have made so flagitious an attack on your royal person, and are grateful that allwise Providence was pleased to avert the deadly design of so atrocious an attempt. At the same time, we most heartily congratulate your Majesty on your providential escape, and trust you may long reign over a loyal and devoted people.

Given under the common seal of the said borough, this 9th day of July 1832.

[Here follow the signatures.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Sire,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the royal burgh of Tain, in Scotland, beg to approach your Royal Throne, to express to your Majesty our firm and unshaken attachment to your Majesty's person and government, and our heartfelt joy that your Majesty escaped almost uninjured from the brutal and treacherous attack lately made upon your sacred person, by a man whose conduct shewed him to be one of the most depraved and worthless of his race.

While we assure your Majesty of our unfeigned attachment to your royal person, and of our horror at the wicked attack made upon you, we feel happy in the belief, that there does not exist another man within your wide dominions capable of conduct so atrocious as that to which we have alluded.

That your Majesty may live long and reign prosperously over a free, loyal, and happy people, is the earnest prayer of,

Signed, in our name and by our appointment, by Wm. Murray, Provost of Tair.

July 9, 1832.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Sire,

WE, your Majesty's very loyal subjects, the Worshipful Master Wardens and Brethren of the Naim Saint Ninian Operative Lodge of Free Masons, in open lodge duly assembled, beg leave to express to your Majesty our most unfeigned abhorrence of the