

Forfar, humbly beg leave to approach your Majesty with feelings of unabated loyalty and respect, to express our horror and indignation at the atrocious attack lately made upon your Majesty's sacred person at Ascot races.

We humbly offer our most sincere congratulations on your Majesty's safety, and our fervent prayer that you may long reign over a free, loyal, and affectionate people.

Signed in name and by appointment of the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the county, assembled in a general meeting this day.

Forfar, July 24, 1832.

Airlie.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Justices of the Peace for the County of Kincardine, in general meeting assembled, beg leave to approach your Majesty, humbly to express our detestation of the atrocious attack which has lately been made on your royal person. We lament that even the idea of an action, so truly base and wicked, could for a moment have entered into the mind of any one individual in your Majesty's dominions.

Accept, Sire, of our sincere congratulations on your Majesty's fortunate and providential escape from an attempt, which has excited the deepest feeling of horror in every part of the empire.

Most grateful to an all-wise and over-ruling Providence, for having held the shield of the Divine protection over your Majesty's sacred person in an hour of danger, we fervently pray that it may please the Almighty to grant your Majesty many happy years to reign over this great nation, in the continued enjoyment of the blessings of prosperity, peace, and concord.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, at Stonehaven, the 11th July 1832, by the Viscount Arbuthnott, Lord-Lieutenant of the county, Preses of our meeting.

Arbuthnott.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principal and Professors of the University and King's College of Aberdeen, beg leave most humbly to approach the Throne, and to present our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's late providential escape from the atrocious attempt upon your Majesty's royal person.

We cannot, in any case behold, without indignation, the passions of ignorant and misguided men stirred up to deeds of violence, under the pretext that they are the victims of real or supposed injuries; and with the utmost detestation must we regard an attack on the life of a Sovereign so justly endeared to his people, by his ardent desire to promote the happiness of his subjects of every rank in the State.

That the Almighty Governor of the Universe may, in time to come, as in the days that are past, avert from your Majesty every danger, and enable your Majesty to persevere in the performance of every royal duty, is the fervent prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects.

Aberdeen, Chancellor; Arbuthnott, Rector; William Jack, Principal.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Dean of Faculty, Principal and Professors of the Mareschal College and University of Aberdeen, have heard, with the greatest grief and indignation, of the atrocious attack lately made upon your sacred person.

We beg leave humbly to assure your Majesty, that we feel the utmost abhorrence of this outrage, and the sincerest joy and thankfulness that your Majesty was preserved from injury. We fervently trust that the Divine Providence, which has watched over your Majesty's safety on this occasion, will continue always to protect, and long to preserve your Majesty, as a blessing to your subjects.

We beg leave sincerely to assure your Majesty, that we shall continue, as far as in our power, to promote the cultivation of sound learning and science, and to instil into the minds of the youth committed to our care, those principles which will lead them to form a correct estimate of the great blessings which we, in common with all our fellow-subjects, enjoy under your Majesty's government.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, by Gordon, Chancellor; Michael Bruce, Rector; George Glennie, D.D., and Professor of Moral Philosophy.

Marischal College, Aberdeen, July 11, 1832.

Westminster, August 4, 1832.

This day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorised by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by His Majesty, for declaring His Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

An Act to prevent the application of corporate property to the purposes of election of members to serve in Parliament.

An Act for shortening the time of prescription in certain cases.

An Act for regulating Schools of Anatomy.

An Act to permit the distillation of spirits from mangel wurzel.

An Act to amend two Acts of the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, and in the first and second years of the reign of His present Majesty, for the uniform valuation of lands and tenements in the several baronies,