

by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of Saint Peter, in Westminster.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Dean and Chapter of your Collegiate Church of Saint Peter, in Westminster, beg to express to your Majesty our great and heartfelt satisfaction, that the late attack on your sacred person has failed in its atrocious object, and that so precious a life is still spared to a loyal and affectionate people.

The criminal attempt has called forth the immediate abhorrence of the nation at large, and we bless that Providence which has not only deadened the blow of the assassin, but converted the meditated evil into an occasion of public gratitude for your Majesty's preservation.

That your Majesty's reign may be long and prosperous, and that your personal happiness may be always accompanied with the increase and stability of the public welfare, is the earnest prayer of your Majesty's servants and subjects.

Given at our Chapter-house at Westminster, under our common seal, the 1st day of August, in the year of our Lord 1832.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Master, Wardens, and Court of Assistants of the Society of Apothecaries of your city of London, beg permission, with the most sincere sentiments of loyalty and affection, to offer to your Majesty our warmest congratulations on your late providential escape from the late atrocious attack on your Majesty's sacred person.

The safety of your Majesty and the security of our happy Constitution must ever be inseparable, and we most devoutly pray that your Majesty may long continue to enjoy a life of health and happiness, and be the guardian of the religion, laws, and liberties of a grateful and united people.

John Hunter, Master; Sam. Griffith, Dy. Warden; Wm. King, Dy. Warden.
