FRIDAY, AUGUST 31, 1832.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, August 31, 1832.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday next the 5th of September, at two o'clock; and on every succeeding Wednesday till further notice.

The cards of the Gentlemen to be presented, should be delivered at this Office before twelve o'clock on the Monday previous to each Levee.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 30th day of August 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations or to substitute any such new rules and regulations as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease:

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably and properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of some justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make), commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor, for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and, in other extra parochial places, out of the poors' rate of the parish nearest adjoining:

And whereas the said disease hath extended to many parts of Great Britain; and the town of Bridport is at the present time afflicted with the same:

And whereas by two several Orders in Council, made on the sixth day of March and the nineteenth day of July last past, by the Lords and others of

His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one), it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed, that every Board of Health, constituted by an Order of the Privy Council, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of the parish, township, ecclesiastical division, district, or place for which such Boards of Health are appointed, for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and the measures of preparation and precaution in the said Orders described, and to provide a certain sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestries:

And whereas it hath been represented to the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, that application for such power and provisions as aforesaid, together with an estimate and statement of all the necessary expences, and a request for the funds to meet them, amounting in the whole to the sum of one hundred pounds, hath been made by the Board of Health for the town of Bridport to the vestry meeting of the said place, such vestry being duly and regularly convened; when the said vestry declined or avoided to comply with the application of the said Board of Health for the sum of one hundred pounds, or any part thereof; such sum being applied for by the said Board of Health to provide for the expences of carrying into effect the purposes of prevention of the before-recited Act, and the measures of preparation and precaution prescribed in the before-mentioned Orders of their Lordships, founded thereon:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one), in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the before-recited Act, that so much of the said Orders in Council of the sixth day of March and of the nineteenth day of July last past, as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed, in discharge of the necessary expences of such sanitary and precautionary measures, to be fixed and declared by such vestries as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby, revoked and altered, in so far as respects the said town of Bridport and the said sum of one hundred pounds:

And the said Board of Health for the said town of Bridport shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to, make application, by their chairman or secretary, to some justice of the peace living in or near the parish or division, to make his order, in writing, upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the said parish of Bridport, commanding them to pay the said sum of one hundred pounds, for the purposes aforesaid, out of the rates levied, or next thereafter to be levied, for the relief of the poor of such parish; which said order such justice of the peace is hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the before-recited Act; and the said parish officers, guardians of the poor, and district churchwardens are hereby ordered and commanded to pay such sum of money in obedience to the order of such justice, and in the manner therein directed, or they will incur the penalties consequent upon disobedience to such before-recited Act and to the present Order:

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things properly done by any such Board of Health, justice of the peace, overseers, churchwardens, guardians of the poor, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order of the Lords and others in Council, or of any order so to be made by any such justice as aforesaid, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant. C. C. Greville.

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease :

And whereas the said disease hath extended itself to many parts of Great Britain ; and the parish of Wednesbury, in the county of Stafford, and the districts surrounding the said parish have been, and now are, affected by the same :

And whereas the Board of Health appointed for the parish of Wednesbury, and other respectable inhabitants of the said parish have represented to the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, that a wake or wakes is or are intended to be holden within the parish of Wednesbury, on or about the ninth day of September in the present year, and that serious apprehensions are entertained that the spreading of the said disease may be very greatly increased by the assembling together of multitudes of persons for the purpose of holding or attending the said wake or wakes, and by the crowding together at such assemblies for the purpose of bull baiting and other amusements and by drunkenness and other debaucheries, and that it is expedient for the prevention of the spreading of the said disease, that their Lordships should issue their Order forbidding the holding or attending of the said wake or wakes, and the assembling together of any persons for the purposes of bull baiting and other amusements as aforesaid :

It is therefore ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State is one) that the chief constable and other parish officers and local authorities of the parish of Wednesbury, in the county of Stafford, shall and may, and he and they are hereby authorised and empowered and enjoined to act in this matter as to him and them shall in the exercise of their due discretion seem fit and proper :

And for that purpose the chief constable and parish officers, and local authorities of the parish of Wednesbury aforesaid, are hereby authorised and invested with full powers, and are hereby also required to forbid and prevent the holding or attending, in the present year, within the said parish, of any such wake or wakes as aforesaid, or the assembling of any persons for the purpose of bull baiting or other amusements thereat, or under pretence thereof, either on the said ninth day of September next, or on any other day or days, time or times, within the present year, and to that end the said chief constable, parish officers, and local authorities aforesaid, may do all such acts as they shall, in the exercise of their reasonable and proper discretion, consider necessary, either to prevent or disperse any such meeting or meetings, or to avert the dangers likely to arise therefrom to the public health of the inhabitants of the said parish in regard to the spreading of the disease, called cholera or spasmodic or Indian cholera :

Provided always, that nothing in this present Order of their Lordships contained shall extend, or be taken or construed to extend, to the investing of the said chief constable, parish officers, or local authorities of the parish of Wednesbury aforesaid with any power or authority (other and further than they are already by law invested) to interfere with, or forbid or prevent the holding or attending of, any such wake or wakes, or of any such crowds or assemblies as aforesaid, beyond the limits of this present year :

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things properly done by the said chief constable, parish officers, and local authorities aforesaid, in execution and furtherance of this present Order, and in the reasonable and proper exercise of the discretionary powers herein contained, this Order shall be his and their full and sufficient warrant.

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease :

And whereas the said disease hath extended itself to many parts of Great Britain ; and the city of Bristol, and more particularly the parish of Saint James, in the said city, is affected by the same :

And whereas it hath been represented to the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, that a large and extensive fair is intended to be holden in the said parish of Saint James, in the said city of Bristol, on or about the first day of September in the present year, and several following days ; and that serious apprehensions are entertained that the spreading of the said disease may be very greatly increased by the assembling together of multitudes of persons for the purpose of holding or attending the said fair ; and that it is expedient, for the prevention of the spreading of the said disease, that their Lordships should issue their Order forbidding the holding or attending of the said fair :

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one), that the magistrates, parish officers, and local authorities of the said city of Bristol shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered and enjoined to act in this matter as to them shall, in the exercise of their due discretion, seem fit and proper:

And for that purpose the magistrates, parish officers, and local authorities of the city of Bristol aforesaid, are hereby authorised and invested with full powers, and are hereby also required to forbid and prevent the holding or attending of the said fair, in the present year, within the said parish of Saint James, or city of Bristol, on the said first day of September, or on any other day or days, or at any time or times, within the present year, and to that end the said magistrates, parish officers, and local authorities aforesaid may do all such acts as they shall, in the exercise of their reasonable and proper discretion, consider necessary to prevent the holding or attending of the said fair, or to avert the dangers likely to arise therefrom to the public health of the inhabitants of the said city of Bristol, in regard to the spreading of the disease, called cholera or spasmodic, or Indian cholera:

Provided always, that nothing in this present Order of their Lordships contained shall extend, or be taken or construed to extend, to the investing of the said magistrates, parish officers, or local authorities of the city of Bristol aforesaid with any power or authority (other and further than they are already by law invested) to interfere with, or forbid or prevent the holding or attending of, any such fair beyond the limits of the present year:

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things properly done by the said magistrates, parish officers, and local authorities aforesaid, in the execution and furtherance of this present Order, and in the reasonable and proper exercise of the discretionary powers herein contained, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS it has been represented by the Lord Justice Clerk of Scotland, that the alarming prevalence of cholera in the city of Glasgow and the adjoining district, makes it desirable that the Court of Justiciary should be empowered to make an Act of Adjournal, for altering or postponing the period at which the different Autumnal Circuit Courts are now appointed to be held; it is, therefore, hereby ordered in Council, that the said Court of Justiciary shall have power to alter or postpone the periods for holding such Circuit Courts in this present year, wherever the prevalence of contagious diseases shall render it necessary or highly expedient for the public safety that they should be so altered or postponed, and for this purpose to make such Act or Acts of Adjournal as may be necessary for settling the terms of such alteration or postponement.

C. C. Greville.

Whitehall, August 31, 1832.

THE following Addresses to the King, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To His Most Gracious Majesty KING WILLIAM the FOURTH.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bishop, the Dean, the Members of the Chapter, and the Clergy of the diocese of Bangor, beg leave to offer your Majesty our sincere and cordial congratulations on your escape from the traitorous attack lately made upon your royal person by an infatuated individual.

Feeling, in common with the great body of our fellow subjects, a warm attachment to your Majesty's august person and royal dignity, we received the account of this daring outrage with astonishment and abhorrence. And we cannot be too thankful to that gracious Providence which has warded off the danger to which your Majesty was exposed, and the calamities which such an attempt, had it proved successful, might have brought upon this nation.

We acknowledge with gratitude your Majesty's paternal solicitude for the peace and welfare of your subjects, your well known attachment to our Established Church, and your determination to preserve and uphold the privileges and possessions of its clergy. It will be our endeavour to shew ourselves not unworthy of your Majesty's protection and good opinion, by the faithful discharge of our pastoral duties, and by strenuously inculcating those moral and religious principles, which are the best safe guards both of sovereigns and of their subjects.

That your Majesty's valuable life may long be preserved, and that you may long continue to be the guardian, under Providence, of our laws and liberties and religion, is the prayer of your dutiful and loyal subjects.

[Here follow the signatures.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Sire,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, Inhabitants of the parishes of Whitburn and Shotts, assembled in public meeting to celebrate the triumph of reform, beg leave to approach the throne with the most cordial feelings of attachment to your Majesty's person and government.

We humbly beg leave to present to your Majesty our warmest acknowledgments, for the great boon conferred upon the nation, by the liberal extension of the elective franchise.

We assure your Majesty that the satisfaction we feel from this long desired improvement in the representation of the people, is greatly enhanced by the peaceful and constitutional manner in which it has been obtained; and we cannot refrain from congratulating your Majesty upon the happy and auspicious termination of a question which has so long and so intensely agitated the nation.

That the important measure of reform, now conceded to these kingdoms, may be followed by the most beneficial results, in reference to the moral, political, and commercial happiness of all classes of your Majesty's subjects, we earnestly wish and confidently anticipate.

That your Majesty may long live to reign over a free, a loyal, and prosperous people, is the earnest desire and prayer of the inhabitants of Whitburn and Shotts.

John Dick, Chairman.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, Councillors, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the royal burgh of Burntisland, in public meeting assembled, beg leave to approach your Majesty with the expression of our most heartfelt congratulations on the passing of laws for reforming the representation of the people of the three kingdoms in the Commons' House of Parliament.

Measures which we confidently hope will confirm the stability of the throne, and promote the peace and prosperity of all classes of your Majesty's subjects.

We gladly avail ourselves of the present opportunity to renew our assurances of unalterable attachment to your Majesty's person and government, and to the principles of the British constitution; and our earnest prayer to Almighty God is, that your Majesty may long reign in the hearts and affections of a free, loyal, and happy people.

Signed in name and by appointment of the meeting, at Burntisland, this 9th day of August 1832 years. Willm. Young, Provost.
