

His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one), it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed, that every Board of Health, constituted by an Order of the Privy Council, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of the parish, township, ecclesiastical division, district, or place for which such Boards of Health are appointed, for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and the measures of preparation and precaution in the said Orders described, and to provide a certain sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestries:

And whereas it hath been represented to the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, that application for such power and provisions as aforesaid, together with an estimate and statement of all the necessary expences, and a request for the funds to meet them, amounting in the whole to the sum of one hundred pounds, hath been made by the Board of Health for the town of Bridport to the vestry meeting of the said place, such vestry being duly and regularly convened; when the said vestry declined or avoided to comply with the application of the said Board of Health for the sum of one hundred pounds, or any part thereof; such sum being applied for by the said Board of Health to provide for the expences of carrying into effect the purposes of prevention of the before-recited Act, and the measures of preparation and precaution prescribed in the before-mentioned Orders of their Lordships, founded thereon:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one), in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the before-recited Act, that so much of the said Orders in Council of the sixth day of March and of the nineteenth day of July last past, as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed, in discharge of the necessary expences of such sanitary and precautionary measures, to be fixed and declared by such vestries as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby, revoked and altered, in so far as respects the said town of Bridport and the said sum of one hundred pounds:

And the said Board of Health for the said town of Bridport shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to, make application, by their chairman or secretary, to some justice of the peace living in or near the parish or division, to make his order, in writing, upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the said parish of Bridport, commanding them to pay the said sum of one hundred pounds, for the purposes aforesaid, out of the rates levied, or next thereafter to be levied, for the relief of the poor of such parish; which said order such justice of the peace is hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the before-recited Act; and the said parish officers, guardians of the poor, and district churchwardens are hereby ordered and commanded to pay such sum of money in obedience to the order of such justice, and in the manner therein directed, or they will incur the penalties consequent upon disobedience to such before-recited Act and to the present Order:

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things properly done by any such Board of Health, justice of the peace, overseers, churchwardens, guardians of the poor, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order of the Lords and others in Council, or of any order so to be made by any such justice as aforesaid, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant. C. C. Greville.
