FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1832.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, September 6, 1832.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty's Levees will be discontinued till further orders.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 12th day of September 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease:

And whereas it was further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably and properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of some justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make), commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor, for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and, in other extra parochial places, out of the poors' rate of the parish nearest adjoining.

And whereas the said disease hath extended to many parts of Great Britain; and the city of Bristol hath been, and now is, affected by the same:

And whereas by an Order in Council made on the nineteenth day of July last past, it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed, that every Board of Health constituted by an Order of the Privy Council for cities, towns, districts, or divisions of England and Wales, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of every parish or place for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and of the Order of their Lordships founded thereon; and, for the promotion and encouragement of the safe and speedy interment of persons dying of the said disease, all Boards of Health constituted as aforesaid were empowered to apply to such vestry meetings for full permission and authority to purchase, inclose, and fence suitable lands for burial-grounds and cemeteries; and when and so soon as any such Board of Health, so authorised and empowered as aforesaid, should have procured any such burying-ground without the walls, limits, or bounds of any city or town (but within a reasonable and convenient distance of the same), and should have made all the necessary provisions and arrangements for the interment of bodies therein, then, in every such case, the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council did strictly interdict and forbid the interment of any person whomsoever, certified to have died of the said disease, in any church, church-yard, chapel, chapel-yard, cemetery, vault, burying-ground, or other place used for the reception of dead bodies, within the walls, limits, and bounds of the said city, unless in the cases in the said Order excepted:

And whereas it hath been represented to the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, that a suitable piece of ground, for the interment of persons dying of the said disease, hath been prepared and inclosed in a place called Temple-meads, in the parish of Temple, in the city of Bristol, at such a distance from any thickly inhabited district as to preclude all risk of danger to the city and neighbourhood, although within the strict legal boundaries of the said city:

And whereas it hath been certified (in writing) to the Lords of His Majesty's Council, by three Doctors in Medicine, practitioners in the said city, that no danger is to be apprehended to the neighbourhood from the burial of cholera patients in the ground chosen for that purpose by the local Board of Health, such ground being the burial place situate in Temple-meads, in the parish of Temple, and within the limits of the said city:

And whereas it does appear to the Lords of His Majesty's Privy Council fit and expedient, to allow and sanction the establishing such ground in Temple-meads as aforesaid, as a burial-ground for cholera patients, although within the limits and legal bounds of the said city of Bristol:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council

(of whom, Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one), in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the before-recited Act, that so much of the Order in Council of the nineteenth day of July last past, as requires the burying-grounds provided by Boards of Health, authorised and empowered as aforesaid, to be without the walls, limits, or bounds of any city or town, be, and it is hereby, revoked and altered, in so far as respects the said burial-ground in Temple-meads, in the parish of Temple; and the said city of Bristol; and the Board of Health of the said city:

And the Lords of the Privy Council do hereby further order and direct, that when and so soon as the said Board of Health for the said city shall have made all the necessary provisions and arrangements for the interment of bodies in the said burying-ground, situate in Temple-meads as aforesaid, the interment of any persons whomsoever, certified by a medical practitioner to have died of the said disease of spasmodic or Indian cholera within the said city of Bristol, in any church, church yard, chapel, chapel-yard, cemetery, vault, burying-ground, or other place whatever used for the reception of dead bodies within the walls, limits, and bounds thereof (other than the said burial-place in Temple-meads), shall cease and wholly determine, and their Lordships do wholly interdict and forbid the continuance of the same; and all the friends and relations of persons so dying, and all other His Majesty's subjects having controul over the disposal of the respective bodies, are hereby strongly enjoined and directed to enforce the performance of this provision, under the pain of incurring the penalties denounced in the before-recited Act against all persons guilty of disobedience to the Orders of their Lordships in Council; and all such penalties and punishments as aforesaid, are hereby ordered and directed to be enforced under the present Order, in the same manner as they would have been inflicted under the said Order of the nineteenth of July last past, if the burial-place had been provided without the walls, limits, and bounds of the said city:

And all police and peace officers, all constables and headboroughs, and all others His Majesty's subjects, are hereby required to be aiding and assisting in the execution of this Order:

And the Lords and others of the Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things which may be necessarily and properly done by any such Board of Health, clergyman performing the burial service, parish clerk, sexton, or gravedigger, peace officers, constables, headboroughs, or others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order, this Order in Council shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian Cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by the said disease:

And whereas it was further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably and properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of some justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make), commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor, for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and, in other extra parochial place, out of the poors' rate of the parish nearest adjoining:

And whereas the said disease hath extended to many parts of Great Britain, and other parts thereof may be affected by the same:

And whereas by an Order made on the nineteenth day of July last past, by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one), it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed that every Board of Health, constituted by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of the parish, township, ecclesiastical division, district, or place for which such Boards of Health are appointed, for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and the measures of precaution in the said Order described, and to provide a certain sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestries:

And whereas it hath been shewn to the satisfaction of their Lordships, that application for such powers and provisions as aforesaid, together with an estimate and statement of all the necessary expences, and a request for the funds to meet them, amounting in the whole to the sum of twenty-five pounds, hath been made by the Board of Health appointed for the town of Great Marlow, to the select vestry of that place, such vestry being duly convened in the manner in the said Order of the nineteenth day of July directed; when the select vestry declined or avoided to give authority and directions to the said Board of Health, and to provide the said sum of twenty-five pounds, or any part thereof, such grant of money being applied for by the said Board of Health to provide for the expences of carrying into effect the purposes of prevention of the before-recited Act, and the measures of preparation and precaution prescribed in the before-mentioned Order of their Lordships, founded thereon:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one), in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the before-recited Act, that so much of the Order in Council of the nineteenth day of July last past, as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed, in discharge of the necessary expences of such precautionary measures, to be fixed and declared by such vestry as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby, revoked and altered, in so far as respects the said town of Great Marlow, and the sum of twenty-five pounds; and that the said Board of Health for the town of Great Marlow shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, to make application, by their chairman or secretary, to some justice of the peace, living in or near the parish or division, to make his order, in writing, upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the said parish, commanding them to pay the said sum of twenty-five pounds, for the purposes aforesaid, out of the rates levied, or next hereafter to be levied, for the relief of the poor of such parish; which said order such justice of the peace is hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the before-recited Act; and the said parish officers, guardians of the poor, and district churchwardens, are hereby ordered and commanded to pay such sum of money in obedience to the order of such justice, in the manner therein directed, or they will incur the penalties consequent upon disobedience to such before-recited Act, and to the present Order:

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things properly done by any such Board of Health, justice of the peace, overseers, churchwardens, guardians of the poor, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order of the Lords and others in Council, or of any order so to be made by any such justice as aforesaid, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease:

And whereas by another Act, passed in the same second year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for altering and amending an Act passed in the present session of Parliament, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland," it is amongst other things enacted, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably and properly incurred in carrying into effect any Order or Orders of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, so to be made as in the said before mentioned Act provided, or sanctioned after they are incurred by any such Order, shall, whenever the occasion of such expence has arisen within any city, burgh, or town, be levied and defrayed by a special assessment to be made from time to time for this purpose by authority of the magistrates of such city, burgh, or town, in the manner therein prescribed, and where the occasion of expence shall arise in any landward parish (or in the landward part of any parish containing any burgh, or part of a burgh), the same shall be levied by a special assessment, to be from time to time made by the heritors, or their special mandatories, of such parish, or landward part of a parish, upon the owners and occupants of the lands, houses, and other heritages within the said parish, or landward part of a parish, in the manner therein set forth:

And whereas the said disease hath extended to many parts of Great Britain, and other parts thereof may be affected by the same:

And whereas an Order in Council was issued by the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the tenth day of March last past, empowering every Board of Health, constituted by virtue of an Order of His Majesty's Privy Council, to apply to the acting chief magistrate of any burgh, or the minister, or any three of the resident heritors, of any parish for which Boards of Health are appointed, to convene a meeting of the resident heritors, and agents for non-resident heritors, together with the tenants paying fifty pounds or upwards of yearly rent, and the members of the kirk sessions of every landward parish, or landward part of a parish, and to apply to such meeting for the authority and powers therein mentioned, and for funds to defray the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said meeting, and further directing the proceedings to be taken at such meeting, and the course to be pursued by such Boards of Health consequent upon the determinations of such meetings:

And whereas it hath been represented to the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, that application for such powers and provisions as aforesaid, together with an estimate and statement of all the necessary expences for sanitary purposes, and a request for the funds to meet them, amounting in the whole to upwards of fifty pounds, hath been made by the Board of Health for the parish of Kirkmabreck and burgh of Creetown, to the meeting of burgh magistrates and resident householders in the burgh of Creetown, and to the heritors and tenants of the landward parish, or landward part of the parish, of Kirkmabreck; when such meeting declined or avoided to give authority and directions to the said Board of Health, and to provide for the expences of carrying into effect the precautionary purposes of the Act before recited, and the Order of their Lordships founded thereon:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one), in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in them by both the before-recited Acts, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, that so much of the Order of the tenth day of March last past, as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed in discharge of the necessary expences, to be fixed and declared by such meeting of magistrates and householders for burghs, and of heritors, tenants, and kirk sessions for every landward parish, or landward part of a parish, as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby, revoked and altered, in so far as respects the said parish of Kirkmabreck and the said burgh of Creetown, and the sum of fifty pounds; and that the said Board of Health for the parish of Kirkmabreck and the burgh of Creetown shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to apply, by their chairman or secretary, to the magistrates and heritors, to raise the said sum of fifty pounds, by special assessments to be levied in the form and manner by such last-recited Act prescribed, and which assessments such magistrates and heritors are hereby required to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in them by such Act:

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things which may be properly done by the said Board of Health, burgh magistrates, heritors, or their special mandatories, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order of the Lords and others in Council, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease:

And whereas it was further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably and properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of some justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make), commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and in other extra parochial place, out of the poors' rate of the parish nearest adjoining:

And whereas the said disease hath extended to many parts of Great Britain, and other parts thereof may be affected by the same:

And whereas by an Order, made on the nineteenth day of July last past, by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one), it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed, that every Board of Health, constituted by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of the parish, township, ecclesiastical division, district, or place, for which such Boards of Health are appointed, for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes before recited, and the measures of precaution in the said Order described, and to provide a certain sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestries:

And whereas it hath been shewn to the satisfaction of their Lordships, that application for such powers and provisions as aforesaid, together with an estimate and statement of all the necessary expences, and a request for the funds to meet them, amounting in the whole to the sum of fifty pounds, hath been made by the Board of Health appointed for the parish of Kenton to the parish vestry of that place, such vestry being duly convened in the manner in the said Order of the nineteenth day of July directed; when the select vestry declined or avoided to give authority and directions to the said Board of Health, and to provide the said sum of fifty pounds, or any part thereof; such grant of money being applied for by the said Board of Health to provide for the expences of carrying into effect the purposes of prevention of the before-recited Act, and the measures of preparation and precaution prescribed in the before-mentioned Order of their Lordships founded thereon:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one), in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the before-recited Act, that so much of the Order in Council of the nineteenth day of July last past as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed in discharge of the necessary expences of such precautionary measures, to be fixed and declared by such vestry as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby, revoked and altered in so far as respects the said parish of Kenton, and the sum of fifty pounds:

And that the said Board of Health for the parish of Kenton shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to make application, by their chairman or secretary, to some justice of the peace living in or near the parish or division, to make his order, in writing, upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the said parish, commanding them to pay the said sum of fifty pounds for the purposes aforesaid, out of the rates levied, or next hereafter to be levied, for the relief of the poor of such parish; which said order such justice of the peace is hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the before-recited Act; and the said parish officers, guardians of the poor, and district churchwardens are hereby ordered and commanded to pay such sum of money in obedience to the order of such justice, in the manner therein directed, or they will incur the penalties consequent upon disobedience to such before-recited Act, and to the present Order:

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things properly done by any such Board of Health, justice of the peace, overseers, churchwardens, guardians of the poor, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order of the Lords and others in Council, or of any order so to be made by any such justice as aforesaid, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 5th day of September 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease:

And whereas the said disease hath extended itself to many parts of Great Britain; and the city of Exeter, and the districts surrounding the said city have been, and now are, grievously affected by the same:

And whereas the visiting magistrates of the Devon county prison, and certain respectable inhabitants of the said city of Exeter, have represented to the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, that in the event of prisoners dying of the said disease of cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, within the walls of any of the prisons of the said city, there may arise great danger to the lives of the jurymen attending the inquest of the coroner held upon the bodies of such prisoners, and such jurymen have in consequence lately objected to attend thereon; also that serious apprehensions are entertained of the increase and spreading of the said disease within and without the walls of the said prisons, inasmuch as there is no coroner resident within sixteen miles of such city, and it has frequently happened that a body has remained uninterred for three or four days, from the difficulty of procuring the attendance of a coroner at such prisons:

And whereas it does appear to the Lords of the Privy Council fit and expedient, in order to avoid the danger likely to arise to such jurors, and for the prevention of the increase and spreading of the said disease, to issue an Order, dispensing with the holding of inquests in the prisons of the said city:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one), that the gaoler or keeper of every prison in the said city shall and may, and he is hereby authorised and empowered, on the certificate in writing of the gaol surgeon, that any prisoner has died of the said disease of cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, within the walls of such prison, to bury, or cause to be buried, the body of such prisoner, within twenty-four hours after his or her decease, without any coroner or jury being summoned, or an inquest held upon the same:

Provided always, that nothing in this present

Order contained, shall extend, or be taken or construed to extend, to the investing of the said gaolers or keepers with any power or authority to omit, or forbid or prevent, the holding of inquests by the coroner upon the bodies of persons dying in prison, beyond the limits of the present year:

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things properly done by the said gaolers and keepers, and others His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

C. C. Greville.

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to the port of the island of Auguilla; His Majesty doth therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the said Act of Parliament, and with the advice of His Privy Council, order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, the provisions of the said Act of Parliament respecting free ports shall be, and the same are hereby, extended to the said port of the island of Auguilla:
