

lawful for the said magistrates, by a like order in writing, to direct the said gaoler or keeper of such prison to remove back to the New Bailey Prison, from whence the prisoners came, all such prisoners as shall then remain in custody, such prisoners being fully restored to health and fit to be removed:

Provided always, that nothing in the present Order contained shall extend, or be held or taken to extend, to prevent the secure guarding and keeping of all such prisoners removed under the authority of the present Order within the cholera hospital of the said town, or to interfere with or prevent the due exercise of the sheriff's or other officer's authority to secure the safe return of all such prisoners to their proper custody in the said New Bailey Prison, when and so soon as the before-mentioned causes of their removal shall be determined:

Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to investing the said visiting magistrates with any new power or authority for the removal of prisoners beyond the limits of the present year:

And all turnkeys and tipstuffs, all police and peace officers, all constables and headboroughs, and all other His Majesty's subjects, are hereby required to be aiding and assisting in the execution of this present Order:

And the Lords of His Majesty's Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things which may be necessarily, reasonably, and properly done by the said visiting magistrates, sheriff, gaolers or keepers of the said prison, turnkeys, tipstuffs, constables or peace officers, and others His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant. C. C. Greville.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 21st day of September 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease:

And whereas by another Act, passed in the same second year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for altering and amending an Act passed in the present session of Parliament, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland," it is amongst other things enacted, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably and properly incurred in carrying into effect any Order or Orders of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, so to be made as in the said before mentioned Act provided, or sanctioned after they are incurred by any such Order, shall, whenever the occasion of such expence has arisen within any city, burgh, or town, be levied and defrayed by a special assessment to be made from time to time for this purpose by authority of the magistrates of such city, burgh, or town, in the manner therein prescribed, and where the occasion of expence shall arise in any landward parish (or in the landward part of any parish containing any burgh, or part of a burgh), the same shall be levied by a special assessment, to be from time to time made by the heritors, or their special mandatories, of such parish, or landward part of a parish, upon the owners and occupants of the lands, houses, and other heritages within the said parish, or landward part of a parish, in the manner therein set forth:

And whereas the said disease hath extended to different parts of Great Britain; and the burgh and parish of Kilmarnock have been, and now are, affected by the same:
