FRIDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1832.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 12th day of October 1832,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to carry into effect a Convention of Commerce, concluded between His Majesty and the United States of America, and a Treaty with the Prince Regent of Portugal," divers provisions were made respecting the duties payable, and the bounties and allowances to be granted, upon the importation and exportation of goods, wares, and merchandise into or from the United Kingdom, in vessels of the United States and in Portuguese vessels, and respecting the repayment to certain corporations, bodies politic and corporate, and sundry other persons, of the amount of the sums of money of which they would be deprived by means of the said Act; and it was thereby enacted, that the said Act should continue in force so long as the Convention, therein recited, between His said late Majesty and the United States of America, and the Treaty, therein recited, between His said late Majesty and His Royal Highness the Prince Regent of Portugal, and so long as any Treaty to be made with any Foreign Powers, with the similar provision therein before recited, should respectively continue in force:

And whereas, subsequently to the enactment of the said recited Act, His Majesty and His Royal Predecessors have made and concluded with divers Foreign Powers Treaties containing provisions similar to those recited in the said recited Act; and whereas by an Act, passed in the second and third year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the Customs," after reciting, as herein before is recited, and further reciting, that doubts had arisen whether, according to the true construction thereof, the said Act doth apply and extend to the trade and shipping of such other Foreign Powers, and that it was expedient that such doubts be removed, it is enacted and declared, that from and after the ratification of any Treaty theretofore made by His Majesty or any of His Royal Predecessors, subsequently to the enactment of the said Act, so passed as aforesaid in the reign of His said late Majesty, or of any Treaty which might thereafter be made by His Majesty, His Heirs, and Successors, with any such Foreign Power, in which Treaty have been or shall be contained provisions similar to those recited in the said recited Act, all and every the provisions, clauses, matters, and things in the said recited Act contained did and shall apply and extend to the trade and shipping of such Foreign Powers respectively, as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as to the trade and shipping of the said United States and of the said kingdom of Portugal; provided nevertheless, and it is thereby further enacted and declared, that the said recited Act doth not extend, and shall not be construed to extend, to grant to or to confer upon the trade or shipping of the said United States or of the said kingdom of Portugal, or of any other Foreign Power, or to the subjects of such States or Kingdoms, or of any such Foreign Power as aforesaid, any other or greater advantage than such as shall have been stipulated for by and granted to the said United States, the said kingdom of Portugal, or any such other Foreign Power, by the respective Treaties subsisting and in force between them respectively and His Majesty, His Heirs, and Successors, but that the said Act shall be so construed and applied as to give full and complete effect to such respective Treaties so long as the same shall respectively remain in force, and is to provide such, and only such, indemnity as therein mentioned to such bodies politic and corporate, and other persons as are therein mentioned, for such losses as they shall respectively sustain by the execution on the part of His Majesty, His Heirs, and Successors, of such respective Treaties:

And, for the prevention of uncertainty herein, it is further enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by any Order or Orders to be by him or them made, with the advice of His or their Privy Council, and published in the London Gazette, from time to time, to declare what are the Foreign Powers with which any such Treaty or Treaties as aforesaid is or are subsisting; and that the said Act of the second and third year of His Majesty's reign, and the said Act of the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, shall apply, and shall be deemed, from the time of the ratification of any such Treaties, to have been applicable to the trade and shipping of such foreign countries as shall be so mentioned in any such Order or Orders in Council as aforesaid, so long as any such Order or Orders shall continue unrevoked, and no longer:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth, in pursuance and in exercise of the powers and authority in Him vested by the Act so passed as aforesaid in the second and third year of His reign, declare, that the Foreign Powers with which any such Treaties as aforesaid are subsisting, are the several Powers hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, the kingdom of Portugal, the United States of America, His Majesty the King of Prussia, His Majesty (as King of Hanover), His Majesty the King of Denmark, the United Provinces of Rio de la Plata, the State of Columbia, the Senate of the Free Hanseatic City of Lubeck, the Senate of the Free Hanseatic City of Bremen, and the Senate of the Free Hanseatic City of Hamburg, His Majesty the King of the French, His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway, the United States of Mexico, His Majesty the Emperor of Brazil, His Majesty the Emperor of Austria, and the Free City of Frankfort:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Council appointed for the consideration of all matters relating to Trade and Foreign Plantations, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly as to them may respectively appertain.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 18th day of October 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian Cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease:

And whereas it was further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably and properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of some justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make), commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor, for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and, in other extra parochial places, out of the poor's rate of the parish nearest adjoining :

And whereas the said disease hath extended to many parts of Great Britain, and other parts thereof may be affected by the same :

And whereas by an Order issued on the nineteenth day of July last past, by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one), it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed, that every Board of Health, constituted by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of the parish, township, ecclesiastical division, district, or place for which such Boards of Health are appointed, for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and the measures of precaution in the said Order described, and to provide a certain sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestries :

And whereas it hath been represented to their Lordships, that application for such powers and provisions as aforesaid, together with an estimate and statement of the necessary expences, and a request for the funds to meet them, amounting to the sum of twenty-five pounds, hath been made by the Board of Health appointed for the parish of Saint Agnes, to the vestry of that place, such vestry being duly convened in the manner in the said Order of the nineteenth day of July directed ; when the vestry declined or avoided to give authority and directions to the said Board of Health, and to provide the said sum of twenty-five pounds, or any part thereof, such grant of money being applied for by the said Board of Health to provide for the expences of carrying into effect the purposes of prevention of the before-recited Act, and the measures of preparation and precaution prescribed in the before-mentioned Order of their Lordships, founded thereon :

It is; therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the before-recited Act, that so much of the Order in Council of the nineteenth day of July last past, as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed, in discharge of the necessary expences of such precautionary measures, to be fixed and declared by such vestry as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby, revoked and altered, in so far as respects the said parish of Saint Agnes, and the sum of twenty-five pounds ; and that the said Board of Health for the parish of Saint Agnes shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, to make application, by their chairman or secretary, to some justice of the peace, living in or near the parish or division, to make his order, in writing, upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the said parish, commanding them to pay the said sum of twenty-five pounds, for the purposes aforesaid, out of the rates levied, or next hereafter to be levied, for the relief of the poor of such parish ; which said order such justice of the peace is hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the before-recited Act ; and the said parish officers, guardians of the poor, and district churchwardens, are hereby ordered and commanded to pay such sum of money in obedience to the order of such justice, in the manner therein directed, or they will incur the penalties consequent upon disobedience to such before-recited Act, and to the present Order :

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things properly done by such Board of Health, justice of the peace, overseers, churchwardens, guardians of the poor, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order of the Lords and others in Council, or of any order so to be made by any such justice as aforesaid, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant. Wm. L. Bathurst.

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient, that the ports of Liverpool and Yarmouth, in the province of Nova Scotia, should respectively be appointed free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested, in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint, that the said ports of Liverpool and Yarmouth, in the province of Nova Scotia, shall respectively be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act:
