

"sessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that certain ports, therein mentioned, in the island of Jamaica, and in the provinces of Nova Scotia, Canada, and New Brunswick, and in the island of Barbadoes, shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; and it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America, to be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as any of the ports thereinbefore mentioned are free warehousing ports appointed by the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient, that the ports of Liverpool and Yarmouth, in the province of Nova Scotia, should respectively be appointed free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested, in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint, that the said ports of Liverpool and Yarmouth, in the province of Nova Scotia, shall respectively be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Whitehall, October 16, 1832.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Monday the 8th day of October instant, or early on the following morning, a stack of hay, the property of Richard Hayward Alexander, of Corsham, in the county of Wilts, Esq. standing, with other stacks of hay, in a paddock adjoining his dwelling-house and premises, in the town of Corsham, was feloniously and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stack) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.
