

under the said Fiat of Bankruptcy; also to authorise and enable the said Assignees to reimburse and pay from and out of the said Bankrupt's estate the several sums of money already paid by the said persons on account of the said estate, and for which they are liable, and also certain costs and charges incurred, relative to a certain intended prosecution against the said Bankrupt and others, for a conspiracy to conceal and embezzle the goods of the Bankrupt, with intent to defraud his Creditors, and also certain costs incurred relative to the affairs for the protection thereof, between the times of the suspension of the payments by the said Bankrupt, and the appointment of the present Assignees, the particulars of which will be then and there explained; also to ratify and confirm all such sales, dispositions, and other acts, as may, previous to such proposed meeting have then already been made, effected, or done, of or relating to the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, or any part thereof, by the said Assignees; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees retaining and employing such person or persons as accountants, assistants, or otherwise, in the investigation of the affairs of the said Bankrupt, or in collecting, recovering, or receiving, the rents, debts, and effects, due and to become due, and belonging, to the said Bankrupt's estate, or in the management or superintendance thereof, or otherwise in winding up the affairs of the said Bankrupt, and to the said Assignees making to such person or persons as they may so employ such compensation and allowance, out of the said Bankrupt's estate, in money or otherwise, for their respective services as to the said Assignees may seem proper and just; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying in full or otherwise arranging the rents, taxes, and rates, due, or to become due, in respect of the premises tenanted by the said Bankrupt, and also the salaries and wages due by the said Bankrupt to his clerks, servants, and work-people; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compounding with any debtors to the estate, and taking any reasonable part of the debts in discharge of the whole, or giving time or taking security for payment of such debts respectively, also to submit any dispute between such Assignees and any person, concerning any matter relating to such Bankrupt's estate, to the determination of arbitrators, to be chosen by the said Assignees and the party with whom they shall have such dispute; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending, any actions at law or suits in equity, or petition, or other proceedings, in Bankruptcy, for recovering, protecting, and defending, the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; and generally to ratify and confirm all and whatsoever the said Assignees may legally and properly have done, in and about the affairs of the said Bankrupt; and to authorise and empower the said Assignees to adopt and take such measures for the sale, disposal, and recovery of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt as they in their discretion shall think advisable and proper; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Archdale Palmer and William Bouch, of Lawrence-Lane, Cheapside, in the City of London, Wholesale Drapers, Dealers, Chapman, and Copartners, are desired to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, on Tuesday the 29th day of January instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying a certain sum of money in satisfaction of an agreement entered into by them, in lieu of delivering up, as by them agreed, three several bills of exchange, a statement of the matter will be made at the meeting; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees accepting such terms as may be offered to them, and which they in their discretion may think it prudent to accept as a compromise of a debt due from a debtor to the said Bankrupt's estate, a statement as to which debt will also be made at the meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees making certain payments to one of the Bankrupts, and his nephew, in satisfaction of services rendered by them to the estate.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Simpson and Thomas Simpson, of No. 31, Leather-Lane, Holborn, in the County of Middlesex, Builders and Plasterers, and Copartners, and of No. 2, Kirby-Street, Hatton-Garden, in the same County, Victuallers and Copartners, Dealers and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, on Friday the 1st day of February next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee being authorised to employ the said Bankrupts, or either of them, or any other persons, to complete and finish the building, in Kirby-Street aforesaid, held by the said Bankrupts under an agreement for a lease with Messrs. Hoare and Woodbridge, and to do and perform all necessary works in and about the said premises, pursuant to the contract and specification signed by the said Bankrupts previous to obtaining the certificate of Mr. Henry Hoare, the Surveyor to the said Messrs. Hoare and Woodbridge; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee agreeing to pay to the said Bankrupts, or either of them, or any other persons as aforesaid, such sum of money as a compensation for such works as to the said Assignee may appear correct; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee making advances, from time to time, of such sums of money, in part discharge of the total to be paid for the works as aforesaid, as the said Assignee may deem proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee, at the expence of the estate, entering into such contracts and agreements, and doing all such acts and deeds as may be necessary and expedient; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee being authorised, when the said certificate of the said surveyor shall be obtained, to apply for one or more lease or leases of the said premises, in Kirby-Street aforesaid, pursuant to the contract between the said Bankrupts and the said Messrs. Hoare and Woodbridge, at the expence of the said estate, the said lease or leases being to be granted either to the said Assignee, or to any other parties willing to take and accept the same, for such valuable consideration as the said Assignee may deem correct, or otherwise a public sale or private contract to dispose of the interest of the said Assignee in the said premises, to such person or persons, and upon such terms as he shall approve; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee, at the expence of the estate, executing such assignments, deeds, or writings, and doing all and every such matters and things as he may deem expedient; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee, out of all moneys that shall or may come into his hands touching the said premises, repaying and reimbursing himself all moneys he may have advanced or expended in any way relating to the holding or disposal of the said premises, or to the carrying on of the business thereon; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee being authorised to decline and surrender all or any of the leases, or agreements for leases, respectively, to which the said Bankrupts may be entitled, as the said Assignee shall be of opinion it would be advisable so to decline and surrender, on account of the same being of no value, and to execute and do all necessary acts for such purpose; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee being authorised to prosecute or defend any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, for the recovery and preservation of any part of the estate; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS a Commission of Bankrupt, bearing date on or about the 29th day of June 1831, was awarded and issued forth against James Huxtable, of the City of Bristol, Corn and Provision-Factor, Dealer and Chapman; this is to give notice, that the said Commission is, under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, superseded.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy is awarded and issued forth against Joseph Porter, of Carnaby-Street, Regent-Street, in the County of Middlesex, Cheesemonger, Dealer and Chapman, and he being declared a Bankrupt is hereby required to surrender himself to Edward Holroyd, Esq. a Commissioner of His Majesty's Court of Bankruptcy, on the 18th of January instant, and on the 19th day of February next, at One of the Clock in the Afternoon precisely on each day, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects, when and where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their debts, and at the first sitting to choose Assignees, and at the last sitting the said Bankrupt is required to finish his examination, and the Creditors are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of his certificate. All persons indebted to the said Bankrupt, or that have any of his effects, are not to pay or deliver the same but to Mr. Edward Edwards, No. 4, Pancras-Lane, London, the Official Assignee, whom the Commissioner has appointed, and give notice to Mr. Parker, Solicitor, No. 28, St. Paul's Church-Yard, London.
