

Lancaster, an Insolvent Debtor, are desired to meet the Assignees of his estate and effects, at the House of Mr. John Lee, the Bull Inn, in Burnley, in the County of Lancaster, on Wednesday the 23d day of January instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, and carrying on one or more suit or suits in the proper Ecclesiastical Court, against the said Insolvent and Catherine Cobham, and all others whom it may be necessary to join therein, for the purpose of annulling and setting aside the marriage, or pretended marriage, of the said Insolvent, George Ashworth Cobham, with Catherine Cobham, Widow, upon the ground that the same is invalid and illegal; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, and carrying on one or more suit or suits in equity against the said Insolvent, George Ashworth Cobham, and Catherine Cobham and Frances Fearn's Cobham, their infant child, and Henry Cobham and George Ashworth Cobham the younger, the infant children of the said Catherine Cobham, by her late husband, Henry

Cobham, deceased, and Richard Finlow, Gentleman, and against all others whom it may be necessary to join therein, for the purpose of annulling and setting aside a certain indenture of settlement, bearing date on or about the 25th day of October 1828, and made, or expressed to be made, between the said George Ashworth Cobham, the Insolvent, of the first part, the said Catherine Cobham of the second part, Henry Hargreaves, Gentleman (since deceased), and the said Richard Finlow, of the third part, and the said Henry Cobham and George Ashworth Cobham, the infant children of the said Catherine Cobham, of the fourth part, affecting divers copyhold messuages, farms, lands, and hereditaments, situate within the Manor of Accrington New Hold, in the County of Lancaster, upon the ground that the said indenture of settlement is fraudulent and void, as against the Creditors of the said Insolvent.—And at the same time and place the Creditors of the said Insolvent are desired to attend, and prove their debts against the said Insolvent's estate, or they will be excluded the benefit thereof.
