Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1833.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, January 21, 1833.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Friday the 22d of February next, at two o'clock; and on every succeeding Wednesday until further notice.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE KING'S LEVEES, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend His Majesty's Levees at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the King's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to His Majesty. And those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Gentleman who is to present them (not the Lord in Waiting), should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, BEFORE twelve o'clock on Wednesday previous to the Levee on the 22d of February, and on the Monday previous to each succeeding Levee, in order that they may be submitted for the King's approbation; it being His Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levees, but in conformity with the above regulations; and further, that no person shall be admitted, on any pretence whatever, who has not been so presented.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen who are to be presented at the Levees will have their names distinctly written upon the card to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them to the King.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, January 21, 1833.

Whitehall, February 7, 1833.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, between nine o'clock on the night of Monday the 31st of December, and three o'clock on the afternoon of Tuesday the 1st day of January last, Elizabeth Rayner, late of Clifton-upon-Calder, was cruelly murdered in Clifton-wood, in the township of Clifton, in the west riding of the county of York, by having her throat cut by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the murder before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the same) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and a further reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS by the Inhabitants of Clifton, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

MELBOURNE.

Whitehall, February 7, 1833.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about two o'clock on the morning of Wednesday the 30th day of January last, five men, armed with guns, were destroying game in Empingham Old Wood, in the county of Rutland, and committed a violent outrage by shooting at and dangerously wounding Thomas Peach and Jonathan Morris, two of the gamekeepers of Sir Gilbert Heathcote, Bart.;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually shot at and wounded the said gamekeepers) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of

ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on application to Thomas Syson, Agent to Sir Gilbert Heathcote.

Guildhall, February 7, 1833.

IN pursuance of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the tenth year of the reign of His late Majesty George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for improving the approaches to London-bridge," and in obedience to an order of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the city of London, in Common Council assembled; notice is hereby given, that it is their intention to redeem the annual sum of £884; being a further part of an annuity or annual sum of £2000, granted in respect of the sum of £50,000 advanced by virtue of the said Act, and secured by a bond or obligation under the common seal of the said city, bearing date the 17th day of December 1829, and numbered 1; and I do hereby give notice, that, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, at the end of six calendar months next after the date hereof, upon payment or tender of the sum of £22,100, together with a proportionate part of the said annual sum of £884 up to the day of such payment or tender, to or for the person or persons then entitled thereto, at my Office of Chamberlain of the said city, in the Guildhall of the said city, the said annual sum of £884 will cease and determine, nevertheless such person or persons at any time after this notice, and before the end of the said six calendar months, will be entitled at the expiration of fourteen days, next after a declaration in writing of his, her, or their intention to receive the same shall have been delivered at the said office (such declaration being delivered between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon), to be paid at the said office the said sum of £22,100, together with a proportionate part of the said annual sum of £884 up to the day expressed in such declaration for receiving the same, and the said annual sum of £884 will on the day specified in such declaration for payment cease and determine.

James Shaw, Chamberlain.

London, February 11, 1833.
