NOTICE.

WHEREAS William Bodkin, of Braintree, in the County of Essex, Carrier, hath by indentures of lease and release, bearing date respectively the 24th and 25th days of January now last past, conveyed and assured all his real estates to Alexander Ross, of Crown-Court, Philpot-Lane, in the City of London, Leather-Merchant; and John Walter, of No. 56, Cannon-Street, in the said City of London, Leather-Seller, upon trust, for sale; and hath also by a certain indenture of assignment, bearing date the said 25th day of January now last past, assigned and transferred all the surplus moneys arising by sale of his said real estates (after payment of the mortgage moneys secured thereon, and expences of sale), together with his household furniture, stock in trade, book debts, and personal estate and effects, unto the said Alexander Ross and John Walter, upon trust, for the general benefit of his Creditors; and which said indentures were executed by the said William Bodkin, in the presence of, and attested by, John Holmes, of Bocking, in the said County of Essex, Solicitor; and by the said Alexander-Ross and John Walter respectively, in the presence of, and attested by, John Palmer Stocker, of New-Boswell-Court, Lincoln's-Inn, Solicitor. Notice is therefore given, that such assignment is now lying at the House of the said John Walter, for the signatures of such Creditors of the said William Bodkin as shall be willing to execute the same, and accept the benefit thereof; and all those Creditors neglecting so do to within one month from the date hereof will be excluded the benefit arising therefrom.—Bocking, 5th March 1833.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Ralph Aston, of Lane-End, in the County of Stafford, Mercer and Draper, hath by indenture of assignment, made the 22d day of February last, assigned all his personal estate and effects to John Worrall Rideout, of the Town of Manchester, Merchant, in trust, for the equal benefit of such of the Creditors of the said Ralph Aston as had executed, or should execute or accede to, the said indenture within three calendar months next after notice thereof in the London Gazette given; which said indenture was executed by the said Ralph Aston and John Worrall Rideout respectively on the day of the date thereof, in the presence of, and attested by, the undersigned Thomas Plant, of Newcastle-under-Lyme, in the said County of Stafford, Attorney at Law, and another person; and the same indenture now lies at the Office of the said Thomas Plant, in Newcastle-under-Lyme aforesaid, for the inspection of, and execution by, the said Creditors.

THOMAS PLANT, Attorney to the Trustee.

Newcastle-under-Lyme, March 6, 1833.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Trustees and Assignees under an assignment from Samuel Ray the younger, late of Bury St. Edmunds, in the County of Suffolk, Bookseller, Stationer, and Printer, intend to make a dividend of his estate and effects, on the 18th day of March instant, amongst such of his Creditors as have already assented, or on or before such day shall signify their assent thereto.

STURLEY NUNN,

Bury St. Edmunds,
4th March 1833.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Robert Featham, late of Brookesby-Street Islington, in the County of Middlesex, Builder, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Saturday the 30th day of March instant, at Twelve of the Clock at Noon, at the Court of Bankruptcy; in Rasinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee compounding a debt due from or a claim upon the said Bankrupt, in respect of a sum of money lately received by him as executor of Mary Matraye, deceased, and to the said Assignee receiving a part of the said debt or claim in full discharge thereof, and thereupon to release or discharge the said Bankrupt from all further claims in respect thereof; and on other matters connected with the said Bankrupt's estate.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against George Bulmer, of the City of York, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Tuesday the 2d day of April next, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon, at Etridge's Royal Hotel, in the said City of York, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the real and personal estates of the Bankrupt to any person or persons whomsoever, either by public auction or by private contract, or by valuation, and either in one or more lot or lots, and at such time or times, as the said Assignees shall think proper, and putting up by auction and buying in the real estate or estates of the said Bankrupt at any such sale or sales and reselling the same at any future auction, or by private contract, without being liable to answer for any loss or diminution in price at such resale; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees concurring with the Mortgagee or Mortgagees of the said estate or estates in effecting such sale or sales, or otherwise paying off and discharging the principal moneys and interest due on such mortgages, or making such arrangements with the said Mortgagees as the said Assignees may think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees continuing and carrying on the working of a coal mine at Denby, in the County of Derby, conjointly with the Assignees of Henry John Shepherd, also a Bankrupt, and for such length of time as they shall deem advisable, and for such purpose to pay and apply such sums of money as shall be necessary for the expences of working the same, and for the rent thereof, and for clerks, workmen, and servants' salaries and wages; and also to authorise the said Assignees to sell and dispose of the Bankrupt's interest in the said colliery, should they deem it advisable not to continue the working thereof, at such times and in such manner as they shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees keeping up a policy of insurance on the life of a person, to be named at the meeting, and for that purpose to appropriate such sums of money as may be necessary to support the same; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing a mineral agent or agents to examine and inspect the said colliery, and an accountant or such other person or persons as they shall think fit in the winding up and management of the affairs of the said Bankrupt; and also to their paying them such allowance and compensation in respect thereof as to the said Assignees shall seem reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying and allowing the expences of one or both of the said Assignees in meeting the Assignees of the said H. I. Shepherd on the Bankrupt's affairs, either at Denby aforesaid or elsewhere; and lastly to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending, discontinuing, or referring to arbitration, any action or suit at law, or in equity, or any other proceedings, for the recovery or preservation of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or compounding, submitting to arbitration, releasing, or otherwise settling any debt or debts due to the said Bankrupt's estate, or any matter or thing relating thereto; and generally to act for the estate of the said Bankrupt in such manner as shall seem to them most beneficial; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Abraham Huddleston, of Biton with Harrogate, in the County of York, Hotel-Keeper, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Saturday the 30th day of March instant, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Mr. Matthew Gill, Solicitor, in Knaresborough, in the said

County, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of all or any part of the stock in trade, household furniture, and other personal estate of the said Bankrupt, either by public auction or private contract, in such manner and upon such credit, with or without security, to any person or persons as the said Assignees shall deem best; and to assent to or dissent from and authorise and empower the said Assignees to commence and prosecute or defend any action, suit, or other proceeding, as may be advised, or which may be found necessary, in order to set aside an execution levied by certain Creditors of the Bankrupt upon part of the Bankrupt's effects, and to recover the property seized under the same, or the produce of the sale thereof, for the benefit of the Bankrupt's estate, and to discontinue any such action, suit, or other proceeding, and to refer the subject matter thereof and all questions regarding the said execution and the rights of the Assignees in or to the property seized thereunder to arbitration, or to compound or otherwise agree any such action, suit, or other proceeding, and all or any such questions as to the said Assignees shall seem advisable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing either by public auction or private contract of all or any part of the real estate of the said Bankrupt, or joining or entering into any agreement or arrangement with the Mortgagee or Mortgagees in effecting a sale thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending, any action, suit, or other proceeding, at law or in equity, or in the Court of Review, for the recovery or protection of all or any part of the said Bankrupt's real or personal estate; or to the compounding, or submitting to arbitration, any matter or thing relating thereto; and generally to authorise the said Assignees to act for the benefit of the said Bankrupt's Creditors in all matters relating to his estate, in such manner as they shall deem expedient; and on other special affairs.

THE separate Creditors of George Dawson, who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued and now in prosecution against George Dawson and James Kerr, of Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, Nankeen-Manufacturers, Dealers, Chapmen, and Copartners, are requested to meet on the 1st day of April next, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon, at the Star Inn, in Manchester aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the person or persons who may have then been appointed as Inspector or Inspectors to superintend and manage the separate estate of the said George Dawson tendering and making such proof (either before the Commissioners in and by the said Commission named and authorised, or the major part of them, or by petition to the Court of Review, as such Inspector or Inspectors may be advised), on behalf of the Creditors of the separate estate of the said George Dawson against the joint estate of the said George Dawson and James Kerr; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Inspector or Inspectors commencing, prosecuting, or defending, any suit or suits at law, or in equity, for the purpose of contesting and trying the validity of certain mortgage or mortgages, given by the said Bankrupts upon their respective separate properties, to persons to be named at such meeting, or to such Inspector or Inspectors entering into any agreement or agreements for referring the question of the validity of the said mortgage or mortgages to counsel; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Inspector or Inspectors commencing and prosecuting one or more action or actions at law, or suit in equity, against such parties as the said Inspector or Inspectors may be advised, for the purpose of contesting and trying the validity of certain indentures of settlement made by the said George Dawson, previous to his marriage with his present wife, whereby considerable separate property of the said George Dawson was conveyed and assigned to certain Trustees, in trust, for the benefit of the wife of the said George Dawson, or to the said Inspector or Inspectors entering into such agreement or agreements for referring the question of the validity thereof to such person or persons, and upon such terms and conditions as the said Inspector or Inspectors may think proper or be advised; also to assent to or dissent from the said Inspector or Inspectors presenting and prosecuting any petition or petitions to the Court of Review for the purpose of getting certain sum and sums of money placed by the Assignees of the estate of the said George Dawson and James Kerr to the credit of the joint estate, transferred to the credit of the separate estate of the said George Dawson, and also for getting certain costs, charges, and expences, charged by the said Assignees against the separate estate of the said George Dawson, transferred to the joint estate of Dawson and Kerr, or getting the same wholly disallowed.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the law relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed: and no Docket shall be struck upon such act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country."—Notice is hereby given, that Declarations were filed on the 7th day of March 1833, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by
