

Whitehall, March 15, 1833.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that Robert Paviour, aged thirteen years, who had been missing from the residence of his parents, No. 26, John-street, Saint Pancras, since the evening of Tuesday the 19th ultimo, was, on Saturday the 9th instant, found in the Regent's Canal, with both arms broken, and otherwise seriously injured; and that there is every reason to believe he had been thrown into the said Canal, after having been murdered, by some evil-disposed person or persons;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the murder before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually murdered the said Robert Paviour) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, to any person (except as aforesaid), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

MELBOURNE.

IN pursuance of an order of the Honourable the House of Commons, of the 21st instant, notice is hereby given, that application is now making to Parliament for leave to bring in a Bill for confirming and carrying into effect an agreement between the Bishop of Ely and the Society of Judges and Serjeants of Serjeant's-Inn, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, for vesting in Trustees for the said Society the fee simple and inheritance of the same Inn; and for confirming and effectuating an agreement between the said Society and the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the parish of Saint Dunstan in the West, in the city of London, and the Trustees, under an Act passed in the tenth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, for taking down the parish church of Saint Dunstan in the West, and building a new church in lieu thereof, whereby the said Society have agreed to pay to the said Churchwardens and Overseers a certain sum annually in lieu of church rates, and a certain sum annually in lieu of poor's rates, claimed to be payable to the said parish in respect of Serjeant's-Inn aforesaid, and for other purposes. Dated this 22d day of March 1833.

John S. Gregory, Bedford-row, Agent for the Bill.

Office for Taxes, Somerset-Place,
