In Bristol.—Valuable Freehold and Leasehold Property.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. George Robins, at the Bush Inn, Bristol, on Saturday April 6th, 1833, at Twelve for One o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, in lots, by order of the Commissioners under a renewed Commission of Bankrupt issued against Mr. Benjamin Loscombe, deceased, and with the concurrence of the surviving Executors and Trustees under the will of the late John Curtis, Esq. surviving Partner of the late firm of Peach, Fowler, Curtis, and Loscombe, Bankers, of Bristol, the following very improvable freehold and leasehold property, the best situated in the Town and City of Bristol, it comprehends, first,

Three substantial houses, with gardens, situate in Wilder-Street, in the Parish of St. Paul.

A mansion and offices, with a large garden, walled round, and extending from Wilder-Street to the west angle of Brunswick-Square, this part of the property will be improved by a little substantial as well as ornamental repair, and when this is accomplished it will present an abode suitable to one of the wealthy merchants of Bristol.

Also livery-stables, with yard and other conveniences, contiguous to the mansion, a large garden close by, with a frontage of 108 feet; this ground is intended to form the south-east side of Brunswick-Square, or there is abundant room for a capital house and offices, and yet reserving to itself a good garden.

Also excellent market garden ground, not far off, of considerable extent, and very fruitful in all the useful purposes connected with the supply of the first commercial city in England.

There is besides some very good nursery-ground, called Knapp's Close, with a dwelling-house upon it. The land extends to Newfoundland-Lane. This is leasehold, under the Trinity Almshouses, for 99 years, determinable on Mr. Charles Fowler's life, who is 58.

Also a dwelling-house, in Castle-Street, in Castle Precinct; and a warehouse, in Queen-Street, in the City of Bristol; this is also leasehold, and held under the Corporation of Bristol, for 99 years, determinable on Mr. Robert Fowler's life.

And to conclude, a warehouse and workshop, in Small-Street, occupied by Mr. Pugh, the Statuary.

The property may all be viewed 21 days prior to the sale, and particulars then had at the Office of Messrs. Clarke and Son, Solicitors to the Assignee, in Bristol; also at the Bush Inn, Bristol; the York House, Bath; of Messrs. White and Carew, Solicitors to the Executors of the surviving Mortgagee, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields, London; and at Mr. George Robins' Offices, Covent-Garden, London.
