

20th day of June 1833, when the interest will cease. Such bills will be received daily (holidays excepted), from ten o'clock till one, until and including the 10th day of June, at this Office, where lists are to be obtained, containing instructions for arranging the bills. The bearers must endorse each bill with their usual signatures, and write their names and residences at the bottom of each list; and where the names of holders are inserted in bills, the bearers, not being such holders, must previously obtain their endorsements. The bearers must attend to give receipts for the payment.

Payment may be obtained, if required, previous to the said 20th day of June, upon leaving the bills for examination one day prior to that on which such payment is desired.

New bills, bearing an interest of three halfpence by the day upon every one hundred pounds, and dated the said 20th day of June, may be obtained in whole or in part payment of principal, upon stating the required amount on the lists, delivered on or before the said 10th day of June, which new bills, with the interest on the bills exchanged, will be issued on the 21st day of June 1833.

N. B. All Exchequer Bills, dated prior to January 1832, have been advertised to be paid off.

CAUTION.

LAURIE, Mayor.

At a Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, held in the Inner Chamber of the Guildhall of the City of London, on Tuesday the 7th day of May 1833, and in the third year of the reign of William the Fourth, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, &c.

WHEREAS it hath been represented to this Court that a person calling himself Joseph Ady hath for some time past been in the practice of sending letters to various persons in all parts of the kingdom, stating himself to be in the possession of information for their pecuniary advantage, and to afford the same on payment to him of twenty shillings, and in some instances of five shillings (and referring falsely in such letters for his character, integrity, and responsibilities to Sir William Heygate, Bart. William Taylor Copeland, Esq. and other members of the Court of Aldermen, and to Mr. Francis Hobler, the Chief Clerk, at the Mansion House, without having any authority for such references, and also falsely adding to some of the said letters that the said William Taylor Copeland, Esq. would be security for him to the amount of one thousand pounds), this Court do hereby caution the public against paying any attention to such references relative either to the character, integrity, or responsibility of the said Joseph Ady.

Woodthorpe.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Commissioners for paving, &c. the hamlet of Mile-end New Town, in the county of Middlesex, and Great Garden-street, in the parish of St. Mary, Matfelon, otherwise Whitechapel, in the county of Middlesex, will be prepared, on the 1st day of October next, to pay off and discharge one bond or assignment of the rates for paving Well-street, in the said hamlet, No. 9, and bearing date on or about the 1st day of October 1822; and on the 25th day of July next, to pay off and discharge one other bond or assignment of the rates for paving George-street, in the said hamlet, No. 14, and bearing date on or about the 25th day of February 1823; and on the 19th day of July next, to pay off and discharge one other bond or assignment of the rates for paving Great Garden-street, in the parish of Saint Mary, Matfelon, otherwise Whitechapel, aforesaid, No. 3, and bearing date on or about the 12th day of October 1830; each of the said bonds or assignments being to secure the sum of one hundred pounds and interest thereon respectively; and that from and after the respective times mentioned for paying off the same, all interest upon such bonds or assignments, or the money thereby respectively secured, will cease, pursuant to the Statute in such case made and provided.—Dated this 11th day of May 1833.

Chas. Carron, Clerk to the Commissioners.

No. 10, Princes-street, Spitalfields.
