Fifth Ward.

That part of the burgh included within a line drawn from the junction of Titchfield-street with King-street, along the road leading past the Slaughter-house to the water of Irvine ; thence up said water to the point at which the parliamentary boundary intersects the water of Irvine ; thence along said boundary, southward, westward, and northward, to the junction of the waters of Irvine and Kilmarnock ; and thence up Kilmarnock-water to a point opposite the junction of Titchfield-street with King-street ; and thence in a straight line, passing through the point of junction of King-street and Titchfield-street, to the point first described.

That the number of councillors to be chosen in each ward at the first election in November next, shall be three in each of the first, third, fourth, and fifth wards, and four in the second ward.

That the number of such councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four shall be five—one being chosen in each of the five wards.

That the number of councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five shall likewise be five—one being chosen in each of the five wards.

That the number of councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six shall be six—one councillor being chosen in each of the first, third, fourth, and fifth wards, and two in the second ward. And

That in all future terms of three years the members of the council shall be supplied in a similar rotation as is above appointed for the period from November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four to November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, both inclusive.

GENERAL DECLARATION.

All the boundaries of the wards of the above burghs or towns shall be understood to run along the centres of the streets, roads, lanes, streams, and closes by which they are described to be bounded, except where the contrary is particularly provided.

Any streets, grounds, houses, and places situated within the boundaries of the aforesaid burghs or towns, and not included in the description of the several wards before mentioned, shall be held as belonging to the ward to which such streets, grounds, houses, and places are severally next adjacent, unless where otherwise specially provided.
