Whitehall, November 2, 1833.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Alexander Houstoun, Clerk, of Baads, in the shire of Edinburgh, and of Hartley Maudit, in the county of Southampton, late Rector of Hartley Maudit aforesaid, His royal licence and authority that he and his issue may (in compliance with a direction contained in a deed of disposition and entail executed by his grandfather, Alexander Douglas, of Baads aforesaid, Esq. deceased) henceforth use and bear the surname and designation of Douglas of Baads, in addition to and after that of Houstoun, and also bear the arms of Douglas of Baads; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds'

Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And His Majesty has been further pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms.

I Joseph Sewell, of the parish of East Poringland, in the county of Norfolk, Gentleman, one of the owners and proprietors of lands and tenements situate in the said parish, do hereby give notice, pursuant to the directions of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fortieth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for dividing, allotting, and inclosing the commons and waste grounds in the parishes of East Poringland, West Poringland, Framingham Earl, Framingham Pigot, Bixley, Armeringhall, Stoke Holy Cross, and Caistor Saint Edmund, in the county of Norfolk, and for making a compensation for the tithes arising in the said parishes of East Poringland, Framingham Earl, and Bixley," that at the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden in and for the county of Norfolk, at the Castle of Norwich, in the Shirehouse there, on the 1st day of January now next ensuing, I intend to apply to His Majesty's Justices of the Peace then and there to be assembled, to have three persons named and appointed by the said Justices to be arbitrators or referees for enquiring into and ascertaining the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat, within the said county of Norfolk, for fourteen years now last past, according to the directions of the said Act, and for the purposes therein mentioned.—Witness my hand,

Joseph Sewell.

British Guiana.—District of Berbice.

IN pursuance of an Order of the Honourable the Supreme Court of Civil Justice of the District of Berbice, made on the petition of Celia Trotman, a Legatee under the last will and testament of Robert Brown, late of said District, Surgeon, deceased; all persons interested therein, or who may conceive themselves entitled to claim upon the surplus proceeds (amounting to four thousand five hundred and eighty-three guilders), of the estate and effects of the said late Robert Brown, deceased, either as Legatees or otherwise, are required to appear in person or by Attorney, at the Roll Court, to be held in New Amsterdam, Berbice, in the month of March 1834, then and there to render in their respective claims properly substantiated, after which the Court will proceed to dispose of the said petition.

Registrar's Office, Berbice, 13th September 1833.

JAS. SHANKS, Registrar.

BRITISH GUIANA.

THE undersigned, in the capacity as Deputy First Marshal of the District of Demerary and Essequibo, advertises, by these presents, for the first, second, and third time, that he will, by virtue of certain sentences of the Honourable the Supreme Court of Civil Justice of said District, expose and sell, at public execution sale, the following plantations, with their cultivation, buildings, slaves, and further appurtenances, viz.

Firstly.—In the month of June 1834, plantation La Belle Alliance, on the Arabian Coast of Essequibo, situate between Plant Richmond on the south, and plantation Lima on the north, the property of the estate of the late Edward Austin.

Secondly.—In the month of June 1834, plantation Retrieve, on Lequan Island, Essequibo, between plantation Elizabeth Ann on the east, and plantation Cane-fields on the west, the property of Edward Dawson.

Thirdly.—In the month of June 1834, plantation Ruimzigt, on Hog Island, Essequibo, between plantation L'Henreuse Retraite on the east, and plantation Hope and Vries on the west, the property of the estate of the late I. I. Deiges.

Fourthly.—In the month of July 1834, plantation Vryheid Lust and Sheet Anchor, on the East Coast of Demerary, between plantation Better Hope on the south, and plantation Brothers on the east, the property of the heirs of the late Hendrick Van Cooten.

Fifthly.—In the month of November 1834, plantation Henrietta, on Lequan Island, Essequibo, situate between plantation Phoenix on the east, and plantation Vrows Anna on the west, the property of William Roach.

Sixthly.—In the month of November 1834, plantation Henrietta, on the Arabian Coast of Essequibo, between plantation Richmond on the north, and plantation Anna Regina on the south, the property of Gerret Timmerman.

Seventhly.—In the month of November 1834, plantation Orangestein, on the East Bank of the Essequibo River, between plantation Le Destin and Bushy Park, the property of the estate of the late W. W. Kernan and F. Verbeke.
