

the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and consolidate the laws for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England," will be held on Monday the 3d day of February next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Office of Mr. Robert Harvey Minister, in the City of Coventry, Solicitor, to approve and direct in what manner, and at what place or places, the real estate of the said Insolvent shall be sold by public auction.

WHEREAS the Assignee of the estate and effects of John Poolman the younger, late of Madingley, in the Parish of Saint Giles, in the Town and County of Cambridge, Carpenter, an Insolvent Debtor, lately a Prisoner in the King's Bench Prison, hath caused an account of the said estate and effects, duly sworn to, to be filed in the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors; the Creditors of the said Insolvent are requested to meet the Assignee at the House of Mr. William Ekin, known by the sign of the Hoop Hotel, at Cambridge, in the County of Cambridge aforesaid, on the 28th day of February next, at Five of the Clock in the Afternoon precisely, when and where the Assignee will declare the amount of the balance in his hands, and proceed to make a Dividend with the same amongst the Creditors whose debts are admitted in the schedule sworn to by the Insolvent, in proportion to the amount thereof, subject to such correction of the rights to receive dividends as may be made according to the Statute.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a meeting of the Creditors of George Topham, late of Copt Hewick, near Ripon, in the West Riding of Yorkshire, late Farmer and Wheelwright, a Prisoner for debt in the Castle of York, who hath sought the benefit of the Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, will be held on the 3d day of February next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Robin Hood Inn, situate in Castle-gate, in the City of York, to approve and direct when, and in what manner, and at what place or places, the real estate of the said Insolvent Debtor shall be sold by public auction; and also to assent to or dissent from the Assignee of the said Insolvent Debtor's estate and effects concurring with certain persons, to be then and there named, in completing the sale of certain leasehold property, situate at Keighley, in the West Riding of Yorkshire, and which said leasehold property is subject to a mortgage to the said Insolvent Debtor; and on other matters.

THE Creditors of Jane Walters, late of Bridgnorth, in the County of Salop, Widow, Dealer in Bacon, Butter, and Cheese, and Huckster and General Shopkeeper, an Insolvent Debtor, whose debts have been admitted, are desired to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Insolvent, on Monday the 3d day of February next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Mr. Teece, Solicitor, Shrewsbury, in the said County of Salop, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing and prosecuting an action at law, or a suit in equity, against certain persons (whose names will be mentioned at the said meeting), to recover the amount of the proceeds arising from the sale of certain parts of the estate and effects of the said Insolvent, and now remaining in their hands; or to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee submitting to arbitration the questions in dispute with the said certain persons, touching or concerning the moneys so received by them, and now remaining in their hands as aforesaid; or to the said Assignee compounding or entering into an agreement with the said certain persons for settling and determining the said questions in dispute, without resorting to proceedings at law or in equity.

THE Creditors of James Pritchit, late of Grove-Field, in the Parish of Cheltenham, in the County of Gloucester, Gentleman, an Insolvent Debtor, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Insolvent, on Friday the 7th day of February next, at the Plough Hotel, in Cheltenham aforesaid, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of, by public auction or by private contract, a certain leasehold mill, with the machinery and appurtenances, and certain leasehold land, with the warehouses and buildings thereon, situate in or near Newhall Street, in Birmingham, in the County of Warwick, either in one or more lots, and either as a going mill or to pull down the same, and to sell the materials, steam engine, and machinery, piece meal, and in such lots as they may think most conducive to the benefit of the said estate, and at their option, and as in their judgment shall seem best, or to buy in the same, or any part or parts thereof, and afterwards to offer the same, or any part or parts thereof, by public auction or private contract, and to sell or dispose of the same accordingly as they in their discretion may think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees releasing the same leasehold land, mill, steam engine, buildings, warehouse, and premises to the Mortgagees thereof, in satisfaction of their debts, or upon such other terms and conditions as they shall think proper; and also to appoint in what manner, and at what place or places, the real estate which the said Insolvent was interested in, or to which he was entitled, shall be sold by auction; and also to empower the said Assignees, at their option, and as in their judgment shall seem best, to buy in the same real estate, or any part or parts thereof, at any auction, and afterwards to offer the same, or any part or parts thereof, by public auction or private contract, and sell or dispose of the same accordingly as they in their discretion may think proper; or to allow the Mortgagees to retain the possession thereof, and to release the same to the Mortgagees if the said Assignees shall think proper, on their releasing the said estates and the said Insolvent from all claims, or on such other terms and conditions as the said Assignees shall think proper; and also to empower the said Assignees to commence and prosecute any action or suit at law or in equity, or any motion in any court of law or equity, relative to the claims of Messrs. Mayhew, Johnson, and Mayhew on the said Insolvent's estate, and which to the said Assignees shall appear expedient; and also to empower the said Assignees to defend or submit to arbitration or compound a suit in Chancery commenced against them by the said Messrs. Mayhew, Johnson, and Mayhew, or otherwise to deal therewith as they shall think fit; and also to receive and take into consideration an offer which will be then made to settle the claims of the Assignees and Creditors of the said Insolvent on certain persons or a certain person, for selling the effects of the said Insolvent at Grove-Field aforesaid, subsequent to his imprisonment, and for other matters; and to consent to the said Assignees entering into a composition with the persons or person making such offer, on the terms to be then or subsequently proposed, and in such way and manner as they may think best; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an accountant or accountants, or other persons, at the expence of the said Insolvent's estate, to state, settle, and adjust the accounts relating to the Insolvent's estate, and to collect in the outstanding debts, assets, and effects; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compromising with any debtors to the said Insolvent's estate any debts or sums of money now due from them, and to submit to arbitration any disputes or differences now depending, or which may hereafter arise, relative to the estate and effects of the said Insolvent, or any claims thereon; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suits at law or in equity, for recovering any part of the Insolvent's estate and effects, and afterwards to discontinue, compromise, or refer such suits to arbitration as they may be advised; and on other special affairs.
