In Bankruptcy Court of Review.

In the matter of Richard Thornton, a Bankrupt.

MR. PARSONS will sell by auction, on the Premises, on Thursday the 20th day of March 1834, at Two for Three o'Clock;

The long-established and most desirable estate, the Star and Garter Commercial Inn and Tavern, situated on the East Cliff, Brighton, in the County of Sussex, immediately fronting the Sea, on which no expence has been spared to render the property as attractive for its internal accommodation and comfort as it is fortuitously placed for its centric and salubrious situation, possessing as a whole all that can by possibility be combined or desired to maintain its station on the pinnacle of public estimation, where it has for a series of years so justly and deservedly been placed.

May be viewed by leave of the tenant; and descriptive particulars had fourteen days prior to the sale of Mr. Edward Bon-field, 12, Chatham-Place, Blackfriars; Garraway's; and the Auction-Mart, London; of Mr. Thomas Lamb, Solicitor, Horsham; on the Premises; and at the Offices of Mr. Parsons, Marine-Parade, Brighton.

Mortgage Security, with possession of Capital Arable Land, at Stoke Ferry, Norfolk.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. John Fenton, before the major part of the Commissioners under a Commission of Bankrupt against William Winfield, of Stoke Ferry, in Norfolk,

Corn-Merchant and Carrier, a Bankrupt, by virtue of an order of the Bankruptcy Court of Review, at the Six Bells Inn, Bury Saint Edmunds, on Tuesday the 11th day of March next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon;

A mortgage for the sum of £250. and interest upon all that piece or parcel of rich arable land, called the Lime-kiln Close, adjoining Mr. Pine's mill, and the old lime-kiln, at Stoke Ferry, in Norfolk, containing about three acres, now in the occupation of Mr. William Winfield.

The premises are well adapted for the erection of a lime-kiln, there being a vein, upwards of 50 feet deep, of fine chalk, or for gardening, building, &c. being immediately contiguous to the Town of Stoke Ferry.

For further particulars apply to Messrs. Wayman and Greene, Solicitors, Bury, or to Mr. John Fenton, Auctioneer, Great Whelnetnam Hall, Suffolk.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Joseph Gurney, of Wingrave, in the County of Bucks, Brewer, hath by indenture, or deed of assignment, bearing date the 17th day of February 1834, assigned and conveyed all his leasehold estate, goods, and effects, to Jonathan Clark, of Princes Risborough, in the said County, Maltster, in trust, for the benefit of all his Creditors; and that the said deed was executed by the said Joseph Gurney and Jonathan Clark respectively on the day of the date thereof; and the execution thereof is attested by Henry Hatten, of Aylesbury, in the said County, Attorney at Law, according to the form of the Statute in such case made and provided; and notice is hereby further given, that the said deed of assignment now lies at the Office of the said Henry Hatten, in Aylesbury aforesaid, for execution by the Creditors of the said Joseph Gurney; and all Creditors who shall not have executed the same before a dividend is declared will be excluded from any share in such dividend.—Dated this 17th day of February 1834.

WHEREAS Harrop Wight, of Sunderland near the Sea, in the County of Durham, Grocer, hath by indenture, bearing date the 18th day of February instant, and made between the said Harrop Wight of the first part; Richard Spoor, of Sunderland aforesaid, Merchant, and William Marley, of the Town and County of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, Merchant, of the second part; and all other the Creditors of the said Harrop Wight of the third part; conveyed and assigned, in manner therein mentioned, all his estate and effects for the benefit of the said Richard Spoor and William Marley, and all other the Creditors of the said Harrop Wight as should come in and execute the said deed of assignment within two months from the date thereof.—Notice is hereby given, that such deed was duly executed by the said Harrop Wight, Richard Spoor, and William Marley respectively on the said 18th day of February instant; and that such execution was attested by Robert Aiskell Davison, of Bishop Wearmouth, in the said County of Durham, Attorney at Law, and by William Bailes, of the same place, his Clerk.
