Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, Queen's-House, St. James's, February 25, 1834.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Queen will hold Drawing-Rooms at St. James's-Palace, on the following days:

March, Thursday, 20th.

April, Thursday, 17th.

May, Thursday, 15th.

May, Wednesday, 28th, { being for the celebration of the King's Birth-day.

June, Thursday, 19th.

Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, Queen's-House, St. James's, March 14, 1834.

NOTICE is hereby given, that it will be necessary for all Ladies attending the Queen's Drawing-Rooms, to bring with them three cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the Queen's Page in the Presence-Chamber, one to be given to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to the King, and the third to the Queen's Lord Chamberlain, who will present the Lady to the Queen.

It is further required, that all Ladies who present others, should themselves be actually present at the Drawing-Room.

Board of Green Cloth, St. James's-Palace, March 15, 1834.

BY command of His Majesty, notice is hereby given, that all carriages going to Her Majesty's Drawing-Room at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday the 20th of March, are to fall into the line at the top of St. James's-street, in Piccadilly, go down the left hand side of the street, round the corner of Pall-mall, and enter at the iron gate nearest to the Palace, set down at the Arcade, and come out of the Palace-yard by the iron gate nearest to Marlborough-house, and pass through Pall mall into St. James's-square. In taking up, they are to come down St. James's-street in like manner, passing through the same gate as when they set down, and go away through Pall-mall.

No hackney coaches will be permitted to come within the iron gates, but must set down at the outside thereof, and go away through Pall-mall.

The gate at the top of Constitution-hill will be open only for carriages of persons having the entrée, which are to proceed down Constitution-hill, and enter the Palace at the Stable-yard gate, turn into the Ambassadors'-court, set down at the Arcade, and go out at the gateway in Cleveland-row; turn to the left, and wait in Cleveland-row, the Stable-yard, or St. James's-park, till called for; then to take up in the same order as they had set down, pass away through the same gateway, and go up the left hand side of St. James's-street. The carriages of Ambassadors, the Ministers, and Great Officers of State, may remain in the Ambassadors' court till called for.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 5th day of March 1834,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order of His Majesty in Council, bearing date the ninth day of December one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, made in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the third and fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade to China and India," certain duties were imposed on British ships and goods on board thereof trading to Canton, and certain regulations thereon were made for the raising and application of the said duties; and whereas it is expedient that the said Order should be revoked, rescinded, annulled, and made void:

It is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the said Order be, and the same is, hereby revoked, rescinded, annulled, and made void.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

St. James's-Palace, March 17, 1834.

His Majesty has been most graciously pleased to command, that the Honourable Band of Gentlemen Pensioners shall be in future called, His Majesty's Honourable Corps of Gentlemen at Arms.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, March 17, 1834.

Sir John Mark Frederic Smith has been appointed Gentleman Usher of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Chamber in Ordinary, in the room of John Beaumont, Esq. deceased.

Foreign-Office, March 18, 1834.

The King has been graciously pleased to approve of the Chevalier de Cussy as Consul at Dublin for His Majesty the King of the French.

Whitehall, March 15, 1834.

The King has been pleased to grant unto James Shaw, Esq. Lieutenant Colonel in the Army, and Assistant Adjutant-General of the Northern District of England, His royal licence and permission that he and his issue may henceforth take and use the surname of Kennedy, in addition to and after his present surname of Shaw;

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms, otherwise to be void and of none effect.

Whitehall, March 13, 1834.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that some evil-disposed person or persons unknown did, on the morning of Friday the 28th day of February last, fire twice, with a gun loaded with large shot, into the bedroom window of Mr. Osmond Lock, the agent of John Knight, Esq. of Simonsbath, on Exmoor Forest, near South Molton, in the county of Devon, wherein the said Mr. Osmond Lock was then sleeping, at Exford, in the county of Somerset, at an interval of ten minutes or a quarter of an hour between each shot, with the probable intent to murder the said Mr. Osmond Lock in his bed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the gun) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by Mr. Knight, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offences.

Whitehall, March 18, 1834.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of the 10th day of March instant, Mr. Francis James Rens, of Stow-on-the-Wold, in the county of Gloucester, was barbarously murdered by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the murder before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the actual perpetrator thereof) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—£100 of such reward to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and £100 by Mr. John D. Charles, of Stow-on-the-Wold.

MELBOURNE.

Guildhall, London, March 15, 1834.

IN pursuance of an Order of the Honourable the House of Commons, notice is hereby given, that application is now making to Parliament, to obtain power in the Bill "for extending the approaches to London-bridge, and amending the Acts relating thereto," to widen certain parts of Upper Thames-street, in the several parishes of Saint Mary Somerset, Saint Michael Queenhithe, and Saint James Garlick-hythe, in the city of London.

Ed. Tyrrell, City Remembrancer.

[Extract from the Dublin Gazette of February 8, 1834.]
TO JOHN GOODBODY, AND ALL OTHER PERSONS CONCERNED.

WHEREAS Thomas Strangman did, by indenture of lease, bearing date the 13th day of April 1748, demise unto William Goodbody all that and those, the lands of Farranclanfyn and Shanbegg, for and during the natural lives and life of Joshua Strangman, Joseph Goodbody, and Jonathan Gatchell, and for and during the life and lives of such other person or persons as should for ever thereafter be added thereto, by virtue of the covenant for perpetual renewal therein contained, upon payment of the sum of £25. as and for a renewal fine on the fall of each life: and whereas, pursuant to the said covenant, the said lease was, by indenture, bearing date the 31st day of January 1803, renewed by Joshua Strangman, in whom the fee and inheritance of said lands was then vested, to John Goodbody, in whom the interest in said lease was then vested, for the lives of the aforesaid Joshua Strangman, Jonathan Gatchell, and Launcelot Crowsdale as by the said several indentures may more fully appear: and whereas the right, title, and interest of the said Thomas Strangman and Joshua Strangman has, by mesue assignment, or otherwise, come to, and is now legally vested in me, John Strangman, of the City of Waterford: and whereas John Goodbody, the eldest son of John Goodbody, who is dead, claims to be entitled to all right, title, and interest of said Wm. Goodbody, the original lessee, and said John Goodbody, under said lease and renewal: and whereas all the lives in the said lease and renewal thereof are dead: and whereas there is now due and owing to me, the said John Strangman, a large sum as and for renewal fines under said lease: and whereas I, the said John Strangman, am unable to discover where the said John Goodbody now is, and in consequence thereof I am unable to make a demand of the said sum so due for fines, on the said John Goodbody: and whereas, in consequence of such inability, I, the said John Strangman, did, by my Agent, on the 6th day of January instant, make a demand of said fines on the said lands so contained in said lease, from Isaac Partenson, William Goodbody, William Strong, and Edward M'Evoy, the principal tenants who were then, and still are, the principal occupiers of said lands, and which demand has not been since complied with:

Now I, John Strangman, do, in pursuance of the Statute in such case made and provided, give you, the said John Goodbody, and all others concerned, notice, that I, the said John Strangman, did, by my Agent, on the said 6th day of January instant, demand the payment of the fines now due under the said lease, upon the said lands, from the said Isaac Partenson, William Goodbody, William Strong, and Edward M'Evoy, principal tenants, who then were, and still are, the principal occupiers thereof; and I do also give notice, that such demand has not been complied with; and also, I do hereby demand, require, and call upon you, said John Goodbody, and all other persons concerned therein, to pay all arrears of renewal fines and interest thereon, due and owing for said lands and premises, to which I am now entitled under said lease, or in default thereof, within a reasonable time from the date hereof, I will hold myself exonerated from said covenant of renewal in said lease, and will not renew the same.—Dated this 6th day of January 1834.

JOHN STRANGMAN.

In George and Thomas Wrigley's Insolvency.

WHEREAS George Wrigley, of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, and Thomas Wrigley, of Hollygrove, within Saddleworth, in the County of York, carrying on business as Drapers, at Liverpool aforesaid, and at Saint Helen's, near Liverpool aforesaid, under the firm of George Wrigley and Brother, and also carrying on business as Scribblers, Millers, and Fullers of Cloth, at Hollygrove, within Saddleworth aforesaid, in Copartnership with James Wrigley and Jonathan Wrigley, under the firm of John Wrigley and Brothers, have, by indentures of lease and release and assignment, conveyed and assigned all their real and personal estates and effects unto Robert Shaw, of Turlane, within Saddleworth aforesaid, Banker, and Thomas Bradbury, of Foulrakes, within Saddleworth aforesaid, Clothier, the trustees therein mentioned, for the equal benefit of all the Creditors of the said George Wrigley and Thomas Wrigley, or such of the said Creditors as shall come in and execute those presents within two calendar months after the said trustees shall require the same; now therefore, notice is hereby given, that the said indentures of lease and release and assignment bear date respectively, the lease the 26th, and the release and assignment the 27th of January 1834, and were respectively executed by the said George Wrigley, Thomas Wrigley, and Thomas Bradbury, on the said 27th of January 1834, and by the said Robert Shaw on the 8th of February 1834; and as to the execution thereof by the said George Wrigley, Thomas Wrigley, and Thomas Bradbury, is witnessed by William Buckley, of Ashton-under-Lyne, in the County of Lancaster, Solicitor, and John Townsend, of Manchester, in the said County of Lancaster, Sheriff's Officer; and as to the execution thereof by the said Robert Shaw, is witnessed by the said William Buckley; and notice is hereby further given, that by a certain indenture or deed of inspectorship, bearing date the 27th day of February last, enabling the inspectors therein mentioned to carry on the business of the said George Wrigley and Thomas Wrigley, as Scribblers, Millers, and Fullers of Cloth, for the benefit of the Creditors of the said George Wrigley and Thomas Wrigley, as therein mentioned, the said Robert Shaw and Thomas Bradbury, and Joseph Sykes, of Holthead, near Huddersfield, in the said County of York, Dyer, and John Bramley Buckley, of Upper-Mill, within Saddleworth, aforesaid, Dyer, were appointed inspectors for such purpose, and which said deed of inspectorship hath been executed by nearly all the Creditors of the said George Wrigley and Thomas Wrigley; and notice is hereby also given, that the said indenture of lease and assignment and deed of inspectorship now lie at the Office of Messrs. Higginbottom and Buckley, in Ashton-under-Lyne aforesaid, Solicitors, for the inspection and execution of the Creditors of the said George Wrigley and Thomas Wrigley who have not already executed the same.—Dated this 12th day of March 1834.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Benjamin Hill, of the City of Oxford, Hatter, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 9th day of April next, at Twelve of the Clock at Noon precisely, at the Office of Mr. Crews Dudley, Solicitor, in the City of Oxford, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying certain expences, a statement of which will be submitted to the Creditors at the meeting, incurred in and about the investigation of the said Bankrupt's affairs previously to the Bankruptcy; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying or allowing to the said Bankrupt any and what portion of the rent which he has paid, or is liable to pay, for the house occupied by him during the possession by the Messenger under the said Fiat; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees disposing of the uncollected debts due to the said Bankrupt's estate; and their commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits, at law or in equity, for recovery of or relating to any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to their compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to or settling, any matter, or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs to be then and there stated.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against John Dawes, William Noble, Richard Henry Croft, and Richard Barwick, of Pall-Mall, in the County of Middlesex, Bankers and Copartners, are hereby requested to meet, on Thursday the 10th day of April next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, for the purpose of taking into consideration the circumstances attending the sale of the Cwmdyant and Tyrcarrol Estates; and also a proposal for a compromise of the debt due from Lord Oxford or his Trustee, and of entering into resolutions with relation to the matters aforesaid.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under the Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Meir Macnin, late of Finsbury-Circus, in the City of London, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Wednesday the 9th day of April next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to take into consideration and to assent to or dissent from an agreement made by the Assignees with one Abraham Cohen Macnin, for the sale to him of the Bankrupt's estate and effects now at Mogadore, or elsewhere, in the Barbary States, for the sum of £500. (the said agreement having been made conditionally, and subject to the approval of the Creditors); also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees taking such proceedings at law, or settling by the opinion of counsel, or by arbitration, or compromising any claim which the Assignees may be advised to assent under the said Fiat; and upon the general affairs of the Bankrupt's estate.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Frederick Herbert Hemming and Thomas Monkhouse, of Saint Paul's Church-Yard, in the City of London, Lacemen, Dealers and Chapmen, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on the 9th day of April next, at One of the Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees giving up to the said Bankrupt, Thomas Monkhouse, part or the whole of the furniture now or lately at the residence of the said Thomas Monkhouse, and formerly belonging to him; also to the said Assignees consenting to the holders of divers bills of exchange, drawn by the said Bankrupts, or one of them, upon and accepted by certain persons, compounding with or giving time to the acceptors of the said bills of exchange to pay the same, either by a gross sum, by instalments, or otherwise; and also to the said Assignees delaying the sale of the said Bankrupts' estate, or any part thereof, or to their selling the same by public sale or private contract; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees giving time to debtors to the estate of the said Bankrupts to pay their respective debts; also to the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits, at law or in equity, concerning the said Bankrupts' estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Thomas Fletcher, William Stanley Roscoe, Richard Roberts, John Tarleton, and Francis Fletcher, of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Bankers and Copartners (trading under the firm of Fletcher, Roscoe, Roberts, and Co.) are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said

Bankrupts, on Wednesday the 9th day of April next, at the George Inn, in Dale-Street, in Liverpool aforesaid, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing actions or suits against any person or persons upon or in respect of certain bills of exchange which were in the hands of the Bankrupts at the time of their Bankruptcy, or in the hands of their correspondents, Messrs. Jones, Loyd and Co. or compromising and settling such actions or suits, or to their giving up to the claimants the said bills, or any of them, on such terms and conditions as the said Assignees may consider beneficial; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compromising, compounding, submitting to arbitration, giving time for, or otherwise arranging any debts, claims or demands due, owing, or belonging to the joint estate of the said Bankrupts, and to authorise and empower the said Assignees to dispose of, by auction or private treaty, the estate, plantations, negroes, debts, and other property and effects of the said Thomas Fletcher, in the Island of Jamaica, or to postpone the sale of the same, and receive the composition-money to be awarded in respect of the slaves, or to act otherwise in respect of the said property, slaves and effects as the Assignees may see fit, with discretion to appoint an agent or attorney in Jamaica, with full powers; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees retaining the life-interest of the Bankrupt, Francis Fletcher, under his marriage settlement, or selling the same by auction or private contract, or entering into an arrangement, composition, or compromise with the trustees of the said settlement, or other persons, in respect of the same, or to commence any suit in equity or other proceeding in relation thereto; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling by private contract, at such price or prices as they shall think proper, any part of the real or personal estate, effects or property of the said Bankrupts, or any of them, with power to fix certain prices or sums as proper reserved biddings to be placed upon the property of the said Bankrupts respectively, and to buy in the same at those sums; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees executing any deed of inspection, letters of licence, assignment, trust disposition, composition, or release, for the compromising or settling their claims or demands, or the claims or demands of any other person or persons, as they shall see fit; and to take into consideration and give directions touching such other matters and things relative to the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts as shall be then laid before the Creditors; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the law relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 18th day of March

1834, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by

ELIZABETH ANNÉ BEECRAFT, of No. 11, Curzon-Street, May-Fair, in the County of Middlesex, Embroiderer and Seller of Embroidery, that she is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet her engagements with her creditors.

PURSUANT to an Order made by the Court of Review in Bankruptcy, for Enlarging the Time for George Augustus Brown, of Dock-Head, Shad-Thames, in the County of Surrey, Baker, Dealer and Chapman (a Bankrupt), to surrender himself and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects, from Friday the 28th day of March instant, to Tuesday the 8th day of April next; this is to give notice, that John Samuel Martin Fonblanque, Esq. one of the Commissioners of the Court of Bankruptcy, authorised to act under a Fiat in Bankruptcy issued against the said George Augustus Brown, will sit on the said 8th day of April next, at Two of the Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London; when and where the said Bankrupt is required to surrender himself, before Three o'Clock in the Afternoon of the same day, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects, and finish his examination; and the Creditors, who have not already proved their debts, may then and there come and prove the same, and, with those who have already proved their debts, are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of his certificate.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy, bearing date on or about the 14th day of December 1833, was awarded and issued forth against John White-side, late of Whitehaven, in the County of Cumberland, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman; this is to give notice, that the said Fiat is, by order of the Court of Review in Bankruptcy, rescinded and annulled.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy is awarded and issued forth against Francis Parry, of No. 14, Brunswick-Place North, Brighton, in the County of Sussex, Tailor, and he being declared a Bankrupt is hereby required to surrender himself to Edward Holroyd, Esq. a Commissioner of His Majesty's Court of Bankruptcy, on the 25th day of March instant, at One in the Afternoon precisely, and on the 29th of April next, at Eleven in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects; when and when the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their debts, and at the first sitting to choose Assignees, and the last sitting the said Bankrupt is required to finish his examination, and the Creditors are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of his certificate. All persons indebted to the said Bankrupt, or that have any of his effects, are not to pay or deliver the same, but to Mr. Edward Edwards, 4, Pancras-Lane, Official Assignee, whom the Commissioner has appointed, and give notice to Mr. George Archer, Solicitor, 1, Featherstone-Buildings, Holborn.
