The London Gazette.

is vid a le ub other by Aggidate

From Bonday April 7. to Coursday April 10. 16842001

those that were ftrangles with him, are come hither f. on Adriatople. They have found in his Stragilo here 7 200 Chawls in Mon 19; fome Jewels, and a Crown of West 18 of great value, (which they have left to offic Gland Signior) and 800 Slaves, of which the greatest part are Women. The Rea Effendi of Chanceloff the Grand Visiers Physician, who was a Grecian, his Interpreter, and all his other whief Officers have been strangled. The 18th of the last month Cara Ibrahim (aimacam according the Grand Signiors Person was declared Grand Visier, and the Grand Signior fent him a very rich, Yell; but he did not long enjoy his new Horor, for on the ninch inflant he was Strangled by order of the Grand Signior; which, it's faid, was done to content the Janif ries, who were very much diffafish d wi h. the new Visier: And it's said that Cara Hassun Oglu Caimacam of this City is named to succeed him. Prince Soliman Brother of the Grand Signier, hach lately received-Letters from him, full of affurences of his friendship and kindness. The Chians which was fent to Perfa, is returned within these few days, having, it's said, been able to obtain no other answer at that Court, than that the King of Per/Ly is not obliged to give to any. Hady an acrount of his Designs.

Thereas: ved at the Court of Persia hefore this Chiaus came from theuce. Deputies from the People of Georgia, who were very kindly received. The Sieur Donal Ambaldador from the Republick of Venice is still here, but it's believed he will embark on one of the Ships of the Dutch Convoy, having the Grand Signior's leave to depart.

Stockholme, March 8. " he King of Sweden is now at Upfal to view his Troops in those Parts, it's faid his Majefly will have a very good Army in the Field this Summer if there be occasion for it.

Warfaw, March 1c. Our Lette's from Cracow inform us, that the King of Poland who parted from thence towards the latter end of the last month for Niemirow, had been stope for several days in his Journey by the ill Weather. That his Majilly had received Letters from the Sieur Lubaczewski, giving an account, that he had diffributed the Monevs, he was charged with, among the Coffacks according to his Majesties order; That he hadreestablished the Stenr Kunuki in his command of General of the Collacks, and had made Colonel Mobila his Lieurenant General, and that the eupon the lid Kunnki was marched with a Body of Colfacks towards the Province of Budziae, to secure feveral Posts which cover Podulia on that side. We are aftered from all hands, that the King of Poland will befiege Caminiee, and that the necessary Preparations are making for it: It is said the place is in no very good condition, that the Garison is very much weakened, and that they want Provisions and Ammuricion, but this we are told with to Conflantinople) Funnally 22. 2001 to provide an account that the Rolling and Mulcovite Riveral Officers appointed by the Grand Constitution is had not be until inflict upon the Relling the late Grand Visit Cara Mulay 13, and the late Grand Officer Grand Visit Cara Mulay 13, and the late Grand Officer Grand Visit Cara Mulay 13, and the late Grand Officer Grand Visit Cara Mulay 13, and the late Grand Officer Cara Mulay 13, and the late Cara Mulay 14, and the late Cara Mulay 1 They ap account that the Politicand Moleovite constitution is that that first institute upon the Retting of Kiouse and some other places, which have been for several years in the hands of the Malgarites, but there would not hear of it, and that its was believed, for the privating a milindesthanding because of the two Comments in the prefeuntjunctu e phaffairs, they would at last agree to heur w the Arusa far formery area and no reidr to a figer sime the accommendation of these Presentions. Hienna, Menobognial Front Munga y live have an account, That the Rebels have milletted a hemicives of the Quagrees which the Troops of Kiehumia and those commanded by the Prince of Lubamiraki 146. 187 quitted in Auppen-Wangury 9-1 There Count Teckyley was marching rowar is Calchan and Alpr- " ries to reinforce shaffarflore he has fluthose places. That the Impenialisation opsi are theateing rogether nean Trenchin. Anduliar General Taprara, whomis Lyke, otiste of the bolicond sen versquis ent dominand his Fonces insittungary; owns very field in ? few days at Nemiobal 121 11 1 n 1 9 11 1, cologne, Apply 191 The Deputies of the Election of Tries and the Duke of Neuburg ato retnered? cour him lierstyrox older need spirgh ton promod Commonalty; to accept of the Imperial Court million they were charged with for the comes poling the Affaire of this City. 1 If skid that our Electer intends for remove from home very fuddynly to some to The Letter's from Munick t affire us, that the Bloctor of Bauwiniwill have an Army of 20000 men in the Field the beginning of the next month. And that the Troops of Fran-tonia and Suabias will likewise make acconsiderable Rody, and that these will be commanded by Prince Waldeck.

Hamburg, April 8, The Danish Troops constinue in the Quarters they have taken in Meck-lenburg and Lawenburg. And it's faid than the Duke. of Zell as Colon 1 of the Circle of the Lamet-Saxony. has ordered feweral Troops to march to obliga The Count de Berks, Envoy them to diffodge. Extraordinary from the Emperor donthe King of Sweden, parted from hence this work on his Jour-Our Letters from Polumetell ncy for Stockholm. us, that very great Preparations are making in that Kirgdom for the Campaent; and that the King of Poland intends to employ his main Porces this Summer in Podolis and towards Muldavia and Wa-

Versailles, April 120 The third instant the Count de Mayan, Ervoy Extraordinary from the Duke of Savoy, had Audience of the Kings and Complemented his Maj flygipod the Duke his Malters Marriage with Madamoif-lle; and the fame day had likewise Audience ufthr Panphin, the Dauphines. the Duke of Burgurdy, the Duke a' shipu, and the Duke and Durches of Orlean, stepon the lane lube The inth the Marquis de Burers Ambullas dor from Savoy, beingroondricter beabe Sieur de Bonneuil Introducton of Amballadors, remixied to the Duke of Majnertha Duko of Savoy's Procuration much incertainty, that no great heed is to be to marky, Madamaifellenin his name of The same given to it. From the Conference at Radkin, we day the conference as Repeal by the