Sale by Execution.

WHEREAS I, the undersigned, by virtue of a writ of execution granted by his Honour Charles Wray, Chief Justice of British Guiana, dated the 25th September 1833, as also by a subsequent appointment granted by the same authority, dated 30th April 1834, have, at the instance of J. B. Walraven, in quality as the present Attorney (formerly the Guardian) of Frans Ludewigh Franendorff, plaintiff, versus Jakob Staal, Ferdinand Alidus Spangenberg, and Lizette Christina Bakker, defendants, caused to be taken in execution, and placed under sequestration, the coffee plantation called Broer's-Lust, the property of above-named defendants, situate on the west bank of the River Berbice; together with the buildings, cultivation, and further appurtenances thereto belonging.

The buildings, machinery, and cultivation are in good order, and the gang (thirty in-number) are very well-disposed and effective.

Be it therefore known, that I, the undersigned, First Marshal for the District of Berbice, or the Marshal at the time being, intend, through the Vendue-Master, and in presence of the Registrar of the Courts of Justice, or a Sworn Clerk, to expose for sale, to the highest bidder, and on the spot, after the expiration of one year from the 14th of April 1834 (payable in four equal instalments of three, six, nine, and twelve months), the aforementioned coffee plantation, called Broer's-Lust, cum annexis; of which all an inventory may be seen by applying at the Marshal's-Office.

All persons, therefore, having any right, interest, or claim in or to the said coffee plantation, called Broer's-Lust, cum annexis, and who may have just grounds to oppose the sale thereof, are hereby required to do so, in due form, at the Marshal's-Office, in New Amsterdam, on any of the three days preceeding the fourth day previously to the appointed day of sale, setting forth his, her, or their reasons of opposition, in writing, duly signed by counsel, when his Honour the Judge will assign a day for the trial of the merits of the same; and those inclined to purchase will attend on the day and at the time and place before mentioned, provided with their securities to the satisfaction of the Vendue-Master.

Berbice, 8th June 1834.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

TO be resold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Parsons versus Holl, before William Brougham, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-Room of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, in the month of December 1834, in three lots;

Three leasehold dwelling-houses on the east side of Carpenter-Street, Grosvenor-Square, in the County of Middlesex, and two leasehold dwelling-houses in Mount-Row, near Carpenter-Street aforesaid; also two sets of leasehold four-stall stables, situate in Grosvenor-Mews, with double coach-houses, and rooms over.

The day of sale will shortly be published, when particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings; of Mr. Richard Smith, 67, Chancery-Lane; Messrs. Brown, Martin, and Thomas, Solicitors, Commercial-Chambers, Mincing-Lane; Mr. C. P. Bartley, Solicitor, Somerset-Street, Portman-Square; and of Messrs. Hill and Randall, Solicitors, No. 56, Welbeck-Street, Cavendish-Square.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Belk v. Slack, it was referred to John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state to the Court whether George Belk and Hannah Belk, in the pleadings named, survived William Belk, the testator in the pleadings named, and whether they were respectively dead, and if dead when they died, and who were their legal personal representatives. Therefore, the said George Belk and Hannah Belk, if living, are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 24th day of December 1834, to come in and prove such their identity, or any persons claiming to be their legal personal representatives, are, on or before said 24th day of December 1834, to come in and establish such their representation, before the said Master, Mr. Dowdeswell, at his Office, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.—It is alleged that the said William Belk, the testator, was a Victualler, and lived in the Parish of Saint Mary-le-Bone, in the County of Middlesex, and it is supposed that he died shortly after making his will, dated 16th November 1779, as the same was proved in the Prerogative Court of the Archbishop of Canterbury on the 5th August 1780. George Belk is described in the will as the testator's brother, and as being of the Parish of Saint John's, in the County of York, Husbandman; and Hannah Belk is merely mentioned as the testator's sister, but was supposed soon after the testator's death to have married one — Jones, then a Chairman, in London. The Parish of Saint John's is better known by the name of Loughton-en-le-Mortben, distant about twelve miles from Sheffield.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Dowding versus Bartley, the Creditors of William Webb, late of Gower-Street, Bedford-Square, in the County of Middlesex, Esq. deceased (who died at Bristol, on the 19th day of November 1806), are, by their Solicitors,
