TO be sold peremptorily, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Vickers v. Scott, with the approbation of Francis Cross, Esquire, one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-Room of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on Tuesday the 16th day of December next, at One o'Clock;

A freehold house now used as a warehouse, being No. 80, Upper Thames-Street, in the City of London; a leasehold house adjoining, being No. 81, and another leasehold house and warehouse, being No. 82, Upper Thames-Street aforesaid.

Particulars may shortly be had at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings aforesaid; of Mr. Shepherd, Solicitor, No. 11, Bartlett's-Buildings, of Messrs. Philpot and Son, Solicitors, Southampton-Street, Bloomsbury, and of Messrs. Kinderley, Denton and Kinderley, Solicitors, Lincoln's-Inn.

WHEREAS by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in certain causes of Fox against G. and Fox against Southam, it was ordered that it should be referred to the Right Honourable Robert Lord Henley, one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and certify whether Mary Southam, in the pleadings of the said causes named, was living or dead, and in case the said Master should find that the said Mary Southam was dead, then it was ordered that he should enquire when she died, and what nephews and nieces of Ann Cave, the testatrix in the said pleadings also named, were living at the death of the said Mary Southam; and it was ordered that he should also enquire whether any of the said nephews and nieces died in her lifetime, and if they did so die, whether they left any and what issue; and it was ordered that the said Master should also enquire and state the ages of such nephews and nieces:—Therefore all persons claiming to be nephews or nieces of the said testatrix, Ann Cave, living at the death of the said Mary Southam, and the issue of any of such nephews or nieces who died in the lifetime of the said Mary Southam, are forthwith to come in and prove their relationship before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

The testatrix, Ann Cave, was a Blacksmith, at Thorney.
