

HIS Majesty's writ of ad quod damnum having issued to the Sheriff of the county of Middlesex, in the following words:

William the Fourth, by the grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, to the Sheriff of Middlesex greeting, we command you that, by the oath of honest and lawful men of your county, by whom the truth of the matter may be best known, you diligently enquire whether or no it will be to the damage or prejudice of us, or of any other person or persons, if we shall grant to William Brewster, Daniel Twining, and Joseph Maberly, licence to inclose a certain part of a certain public footway, called Devereux-court, situate and being in the parish of St. Clement Danes, in the county of Middlesex, and which part leads from a certain other part of the said court, to a certain street called the Strand, in the same county, and extends in length eighty-four feet or thereabouts, and in breadth, at the widest part thereof, eleven feet or thereabouts, and at the narrowest part thereof, four feet five inches or thereabouts, and is bounded by the said street called the Strand towards the north, and by the premises of the said William Brewster, Daniel Twining, and Joseph Maberly towards the east and south, and by other premises of the said William Brewster, Daniel Twining, and Joseph Maberly, in part, and the said court called Devereux-court, in other part, towards the west; to hold the same so inclosed to them and their heirs for ever, so as instead thereof they make another footway, of the same or less length, and equally or more commodious and convenient for passengers, in, through, and over the said William Brewster, Daniel Twining, and Joseph Maberly's own land; and if it will be to the damage or prejudice of us, or of any other person or persons, then to what damage or to what prejudice of us, and to what damage or to what prejudice of any and of what other person or persons, and how and in what manner; and how much that part of the said footway doth contain by number of perches or feet of land, as well in length as breadth; and that you return the inquisition thereof, distinctly and plainly made, without delay, into our Chancery, under your seal and the seals of those by whom such inquisition shall have been taken, together with this writ.

Witness ourself at Westminster, the 21st day of March, in the fifth year of our reign.

Seton.

Notice is hereby given, that an inquisition will be taken, by virtue and in execution of the said writ, on Wednesday the 15th day of April next, at the house of Mr. George Baxter, commonly called or known by the name of the Crown and Anchor, in the Strand, in the county of Middlesex, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day; when and where all and every person and persons who may consider himself, herself, or themselves, or his, her, or their estate, likely to be injured or affected by the stopping up of the said public footway are to attend.—Dated this 27th day of March 1835.

Thomas Wing, 13, South-square, Gray's-inn.
