

BRISTOL TOWN DUES.

AT a Meeting of the Mayor, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, in Common Council assembled, held at the Guildhall in the said City, on Wednesday the 11th day of March 1835.

WHEREAS in and by a certain Act of Parliament, made and passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to enable the Mayor, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the city of Bristol, to reduce, alter, modify, and regulate certain dues called "Town Dues" and "Mayor's Dues," and for the charging and collecting thereof," it was (amongst other things) enacted, that from and after the passing of the said Act, the tolls, duties, or sums of money therein mentioned, called the Town Dues, should cease and be no longer payable; but that in lieu thereof the several tolls, duties, and sums of money set forth in the schedule A. thereunto annexed, as for and in lieu of the said Town Dues, except as therein mentioned, should be, and the same were, thereby substituted; and that the same, except as aforesaid, should be, and the same were, thereby declared to be thenceforth payable to the said Mayor, Burgesses, and Commonalty, in as full and ample a manner as the same had theretofore been and were then payable; and it was in and by the said Act further enacted, that it should and might be lawful for the Mayor, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the said city of Bristol, in Common Council assembled, from time to time as and when they might see fit, to reduce, alter, modify, and regulate, and after such reduction, alteration, modification, or regulation, again to raise and increase, and so from time to time to reduce, alter, modify, regulate; and raise the rate of the said several tolls, duties, and sums of money set forth in the said schedule, or any or either of them, so that the rate of the said tolls, duties, or sums of money, or of any or either of them, should not be raised or increased beyond the rate thereof set forth in the said schedule; and it was by the said Act further enacted, that upon any and every alteration of such tolls, duties, and sums of money, or any of them, being made, the same should be notified by advertising the same, not less than twice in the London Gazette, and twice in some newspaper usually circulating in the said city of Bristol, six months at the least before such alterations should take effect: now we, the said Mayor, Burgesses, and Commonalty, in Common Council assembled as aforesaid, in pursuance of the said power and authority vested in us by the said Act, do reduce and alter the rate of the said tolls, duties, or sums of money payable for or in respect of such of the several articles in the said schedule as are specified and set forth in the schedule hereunder written, headed Reduced Rate, to the tolls, duties, and sums of money set opposite the said respective articles; such reduction and alteration to take effect and commence on and from the 1st day of November 1835.
