

Commission signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Somerset.

West Somerset Regiment of Yeomanry Cavalry.

William Blake, Gent. to be Lieutenant. Dated 9th April 1835.

Whitehall, April 16, 1835.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that several horses, belonging to Coete Nisbitt, Esq. of Glynn, near Harlech, in the parish of Llanfihangel y Tractham, in the county of Merioneth, have recently been poisoned by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually administered the poison) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HENRY GOULBURN.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by Mr. Nisbitt, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

PAKEFIELD LIGHT.

Trinity-House, London, April 22, 1835.

IT having been represented to this Corporation, that vessels coming from the southward, and bound into Lowestoft-roads, have been led into situations of danger by mistaking the lights from the windows of houses upon the Cliff at Kessingland for the Pakefield Light; notice is hereby given, that for prevention of such mistakes this Corporation has directed, that a light, coloured red, should be exhibited in the Light-house at Pakefield, instead of the present white light; which alteration will be carried into effect on the evening of the 14th of May next.

By order,

J. Herbert, Secretary.
