SAML. D. LANDRY, Deputy First Marshal.

BRITISH GUIANA.

PURSUANT to an Order of his Honour Charles Wray, Chief Justice of British Guiana, bearing date the 4th day of February 1835;

I, the undersigned, Deputy First Marshal for the District of Demerary and Essequibo, in British Guiana aforesaid, in the name and behalf of Sarah Beete, deliberating Executrix, and John Austin, Charles Bean, John L. Smith, jun. and John Beete, deliberating Executors of the last will and testament of Joseph Beete, deceased, do hereby, by edict, cite all known and unknown creditors in Europe of the said Joseph Beete, and of the plantations Best and Waller's Delight, to appear in person, or by their Attorney, at the Bar of the Ordinary Roll-Court for the said District of Demerary and Essequibo, in British Guiana aforesaid, to be holden at the Court-House, in George-Town (Guiana Public Buildings), on the 8th day of June 1835, and following days, in order then and there to render in their respective claims, properly substantiated, and in due form, against the estate (Boedel) of the said Joseph Beete, deceased, and the plantations Best and Waller's Delight.

Whereas in default of which the non-appears will be proceeded against according to law.

Marshal's-Office, George-Town, District of Demerary and Essequibo, this 23d day of February 1835.

SAML. D. LANDRY, Deputy First Marshal.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Egerton versus Egerton, with the approbation of James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-Room of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on Tuesday the 30th day of June 1835, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, in two lots;

Certain leasehold estates, late the property of Mr. Egerton, deceased, comprising a leasehold message or tenement, with a warehouse or tenement behind the same, being No. 30, on the east side of Charing Cross; and two other leasehold messages or tenements, being respectively Nos. 31 and 32, in Charing Cross aforesaid; and two leasehold messages in Scotland-Yard; all in the Parish of Saint Martin in the Fields, in the County of Middlesex.

Printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings aforesaid, and of Mr. Briggs, Solicitor, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Acraman against Dodgson, and with the approbation of William Brougham, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at Wigton, in the County of Cumberland, in the month of June 1835;

All the real property late of Mr. Joseph Blain, of Wigton, Merchant, deceased, consisting of an estate, called Quarry-Hill, adjoining to the Town of Wigton, comprising a good sized and convenient dwelling-house, with outbuildings, garden and orchard, and ten acres, or thereabouts, of land; and a free-stone quarry, which, from its immediate vicinity to the Town of Wigton, is of considerable value; also various dwelling-houses, cottages, warehouses, and other buildings, and parcels of building ground, situate in Eligh-Street, George-Street, William-Street, and Union-Street, and at the south end of Wigton.

The whole is freehold, and will be sold in lots; which, with the day of sale and other particulars, will be given in a subsequent advertisement; in the meantime further information may be procured by applying to Mr. Thomas Leadbitter, Solicitor, Staple-Inn, London; to Messrs. G. and J. Saal, Solicitors, Carlisle; or to Mr. Robert Dodgson, Wigton; Mr. Dodgson will send a person to shew the property.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Stubbs against Sargon, it was ordered that it should be referred to the Right Honourable Robert Lord Henley, one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state what children of John Stubbs and Robert Stubbs, respectively deceased, the brothers of Elizabeth Ives, the testatrix in the pleadings of this cause named, and of her sister, Mary Innell (except her nephews, John Stubbs, George Stubbs, and Robert Stubbs), and what children of the said testatrix's three last-named nephews, and what issue (if any) of the children of the said testatrix's said brothers and sister, and issue of her said nephews, John Stubbs, George Stubbs, and Robert Stubbs, as died in her lifetime, were living at time of the decease of the said testatrix, and if any of such children or issue are since dead, who are their legal personal representatives:—therefore, all persons claiming to be any of such children, or the issue of any of such children, who were living at the time of the decease of the said testatrix, or the legal personal representatives of any of such children or issue who have since died, are, on or before the 4th day of June 1835, to come in and establish their claims before the said Master, Lord Henley, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

The said Elizabeth Ives, the testatrix, was formerly named Stubbs, and was born and lived for some time at or near Whitechurch, in Shropshire, and was afterwards and until her death of Little Queen-Street, Holborn, and of Lampton, near Hounslow, in the County of Middlesex, Varnish and Colour-Manufacturer, and died on or about the 17th of April 1833.

The said John Stubbs, the brother of the testatrix, was formerly of Holborn, Silversmith, afterwards of Long-Acre, Coach-Plater, and finally of Brighton, where he died on the 14th day of May 1815.

The said Robert Stubbs, the brother of the testatrix, was of Turnham-Green, Middlesex, Gentleman, and died in December 1822.

The said Mary Innell was a Varnish and Colour-Maker, in Long-Acre, and has very recently died.

The said John Stubbs, George Stubbs, and Robert Stubbs, the nephews of the said testatrix, are all living at the following places;—John Stubbs resides in Maddox-Street, Hanover-Square; George Stubbs is a Varnish-Maker, in Portland-Street, Oxford-Street; and Robert Stubbs resides at No. 16, Lower Philip-Street, Back-Lane, Shadwell.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Stubbs against Sargon, it was ordered that it should be referred to the Right Honourable Robert Lord Henley, one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state to the Court who was or were the Heir or Heirs at Law of Elizabeth Ives (formerly Elizabeth Stubbs), of or near Whitechurch, in Shropshire, and late of Little Queen Street, Holborn, and of Lampton, near Hounslow, in the County of Middlesex, Widow, Varnish and Colour-Manufacturer, at the time of her death (which happened on or about the 17th day of April 1833):—therefore, all persons claiming to be such heir or heirs at law, are, on or before 4th day of June 1835, to come in and prove his, her, or their heirship at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Stubbs against Sargon, the Creditors of Elizabeth Ives, of Little Queen-Street, Holborn, and of Lampton, in the County of Middlesex, Widow, Varnish and Colour-Manufacturer, deceased (who died on or about the 17th day of April 1833), are, on or before the 4th day of June 1835, to come in and prove their debts before the Right Honourable Robert Lord Henley, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Culley against Teckart, the Creditors of Matthew Culley, late of Cotland Castle, in the County of Northumberland, Esq. (who died in the month of April 1834), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before Sir Giffin Wilson, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Marshall against Birnie, the Creditors of Joseph Bayley, late of Thayer-Street, Manchester-Square, in the County of Middlesex, Builder (who died in the month
