

rupts' estates and effects, and to resell the same at any future time by auction or private contract, without being liable for any diminution of price occasioned thereby; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits in equity, or action or actions at law, for the recovery, getting in, and defending or protecting any part of the said Bankrupts' estates and effects, and compounding any debt or debts due thereto; or submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing relating to the same; and also generally to authorise and empower the said Assignees to take such measures in and about the conducting and managing of the said estates, and the arrangement and settlement thereof, as to them shall seem expedient and proper; and on other special business.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Thomas Crowther, of Openshaw, and also of Ardwick, both in the County of Lancaster, Joiner and Builder, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Tuesday the 14th day of July next, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Mr. W. C. Chew, Solicitor, Swan-Street, Manchester, in the said County, to sanction and confirm the sale made by the said Assignees of the stock in trade and effects of the said Bankrupt; and also to sanction and confirm the payment already made by the said Assignees, out of the funds in their hands arising out of the said Bankrupt's estate, of certain moneys owing by the said Bankrupt to the Dog and Partridge Building Society, in respect of ten shares held by the said Bankrupt therein; and also to sanction and confirm the sale by auction made by the said Assignees of part of the leasehold premises and other property of the said Bankrupt, upon certain written conditions then entered into, and which will be produced at such meeting; and also to assent to, ratify, and confirm all other acts, deeds, matters, and things already done and performed, or hereafter to be done and performed, by the said Assignees for carrying into effect and completing the said sale; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action at law or suit in equity, for the recovery or protection of any part of the said Bankrupt's effects; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees submitting any question or matter connected with the said Bankrupt's estate to arbitration, and compounding with any debtors to the said Bankrupt's estate and taking any part of the debt or debts, or such other payments or satisfaction, in discharge of the whole, or to their giving time or taking security for the payment of any debt or debts; and generally to authorise the said Assignees to take such measures in the management and settlement of the affairs and concerns of the said Bankrupt's estate as they may deem proper and beneficial for the Creditors of the said Bankrupt; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as afore said, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days

"next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country."—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 17th day of June 1835, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by

HENRY IMESON, of No. 51, Tooley-Street, in the Borough of Southwark, and County of Surrey, Ironmonger, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

And on the 19th day of June 1835, by JAMES SMITH, of Almondsbury, in the County of Gloucester, Carpenter, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.
