FRIDAY, AUGUST 14, 1835.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 12th day of August 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the third and fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves;" it is amongst other things recited, that it is necessary that various rules and regulations should be framed and established for ascertaining, with reference to each apprenticed labourer within the said colonies respectively, whether he or she belongs to the class of attached prædial apprenticed labourers, or to the class of unattached apprenticed labourers, or to the class of non-prædial apprenticed labourers, and for determining the manner and form in which, and the solemnities with which, the voluntary discharge of any apprenticed labourer from such his or her apprenticeship may be effected, and for prescribing the form and manner in which, and the solemnities with which, the purchase by any such apprenticed labourer of his or her discharge from such apprenticeship, without, or in opposition, if necessary, to the consent of the person or persons entitled to his or her services shall be effected; and how the necessary

appraisement of the future value of such services shall be made; and how, and to whom, the amount of such appraisement shall in each case be paid and applied; and in what manner and form, and by whom, the discharge from any such apprenticeship shall thereupon be given, executed, and recorded: and that it is also necessary, for the preservation of peace throughout the said colonies, that proper regulations should be framed and established for the maintenance of order and good discipline amongst the said apprenticed labourers; and for ensuring the punctual discharge of the services due by them to their respective employers; and for the prevention and punishment of indolence, or the neglect or improper performance of work by any such apprenticed labourer; and for enforcing the due performance by any such apprenticed labourer of any contract into which he or she may voluntarily enter, for any hired service during the time in which he or she may not be bound to labour for his or her employer; and for the prevention and punishment of insolence and insubordination, on the part of any such apprenticed labourer, towards their employers; and for the prevention or punishment of vagrancy, or of any conduct on the part of any such apprenticed labourers injuring, or tending to the injury, of the property of any such employer; and for the suppression and punishment of any riot or combined resistance to the laws on the part of any such apprenticed labourers; and for preventing the escape of any such apprenticed labourers, during their term of apprenticeship, from the colonies to which they may respectively belong : and that it will also be necessary, for the protection of such apprenticed labourers as aforesaid, that various regulations should be framed and established in the said respective colonies, for securing punctuality and method in the supply to them of such food, clothing, lodging, medicines, medical attendance, and such other maintenance and allowances as they are, by the said Act, declared entitled to receive; and for regulating the amount and quality of all such articles in cases where the laws at present existing in any such colony may not, in the case of slaves, have made any regulation, or any adequate regulation, for that purpose; and that it is also necessary that proper rules should be established for the prevention and punishment of any frauds which might be practised, or of any omissions or neglects which might occur, respecting the quantity or the quality of the supplies so to be furnished, or respecting the periods for the delivery of the same; and that it is necessary, in those cases in which the food of any such prædial apprenticed labourers as aforesaid may, either wholly or in part, be raised by themselves, by the cultivation of ground to be set apart and allotted for that purpose, that proper regulations should be made and established as to the extent of such grounds, and as to the distance at which such grounds may be so allotted from the ordinary place of abode of such prædial apprenticed labourers, and respecting the deductions to be made for the cultivation of such grounds from the annual time during which such prædial apprenticed labourers are hereinbefore declared liable to labour; and that it may also be necessary, by such regulations as aforesaid, to secure to the said prædial apprenticed labourers the enjoyment, for their own benefit, of that portion of their time during which they are not hereby required to labour in the service of their respective employers, and for securing exactness in the computation of the time, during which such prædial apprenticed labourers are hereby required to labour in the service of such their respective employers; and that it is also necessary that provision should be made for preventing the imposition of task work on any such apprenticed labourer, without his or her free consent to undertake the same; but that it may be necessary, by such regulations in certain cases, to require and provide for the acquiescence of the minority of the prædial apprenticed labourers attached to any plantation or estate, in the distribution and apportionment amongst the whole body of such labourers of any task work, which the majority of such body shall be willing and desirous collectively to undertake; and that it is also necessary that regulations should be made respecting any voluntary contracts, into which any apprenticed labourers may enter with their respective employers, or with any other person, for hired service for any future period, and for limiting the greatest period of time to which such voluntary contract may extend, and for enforcing the punctual and effectual performance of such voluntary contracts on the part both of such apprenticed labourers, and of the person or persons engaging for their employment and hire; and that it is also necessary that regulations should be made for the prevention or punishment of any cruelty, injustice, or other wrong or injury which may be done to, or inflicted upon, any such apprenticed labourers by the persons entitled to their services; and that it is also necessary that proper regulations should be made respecting the manner and form in which such indentures of apprenticeship as aforesaid, shall be made on behalf of such children as aforesaid, and respecting the registering and preservation of all such indentures; and that it is also necessary that provision should be made for ensuring promptitude and despatch, and for preventing all unnecessary expence in the discharge by the Justices of the Peace, holding such special commissions as in the said Act mentioned of the jurisdiction and authorities thereby committed to them, and for enabling such Justices to decide in a summary way, such questions as may be brought before them in that capacity, and for the division of the said respective colonies in districts, for the purposes of such jurisdiction, and for the frequent and punctual visitation by such Justices of the Peace of the apprenticed labourers within such their respective districts; and that it is also necessary that regulations should be made for indemnifying and protecting such Justices of the Peace in the upright execution and discharge of their duties; and that such regulations as aforesaid could not, without great inconvenience, be made except by the respective Governors, Councils, and Assemblies, or other local legislatures of the said respective colonies, or by His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, in reference to those colonies to which the legislative authority of His Majesty in Council extends:

It is therefore enacted and declared, in and by the said Act, that nothing therein contained extends, or shall be construed to extend, to prevent the enactment by the respective Governors, Councils, and Assemblies, or by such other local legislatures as aforesaid, or by His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, of any such Acts of General Assembly or Ordinances, or Orders in Council, as may be requisite for making and establishing such several rules and regulations as aforesaid, or any of them, or for carrying the same, or any of them, into full and complete effect: provided, nevertheless, and it is thereby enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any such Governor, Council, and Assembly, or for any such local legislature, or for His Majesty in Council, by any such Acts of Assembly, Ordinance, or Orders in Council as aforesaid, to make or establish any enactment, regulation, provision, rule, or order which shall be in anywise repugnant or contradictory to the said recited Act, or any part thereof, but that every such enactment, regulation, provision, rule, or order shall be, and is thereby declared to be, absolutely null and void and of no effect:

And whereas it is by the said Act further enacted, that all laws made by His Majesty for the government of His Majesty's subjects in Honduras shall, for the purposes of the said Act, be as valid and effectual as any laws made by His Majesty in Council for the government of any colonies subject to the legislative authority of His Majesty in Council are or can be: and whereas, in pursuance of the said Act, His Majesty did, on the fifth day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, by the advice of His Privy Council, make a certain Order in Council for carrying the said Act into effect within the island of Trinidad: and whereas by a certain other Order of His Majesty in Council, also dated on the fifth day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, after reciting that it was expedient that the regulations for the government of apprenticed labourers should, throughout His Majesty's possessions to which the said Act applies, as nearly as might be, and having regard to the variety of local circumstances in such several possessions, be of one uniform tenour; and that the state and circumstances of society in the said settlement of Honduras were, in many respects, peculiar, and differed essentially from the state and circumstances of society as existing in the said island of Trinidad, and other His Majesty's colonies in the West Indies; and that, by reason of the variety and minuteness of such distinctions, it was necessary that provision should be made for the adaptation of the said Order in Council to the case of Honduras by some local authority, it was, in pursuance of the said recited Act of Parliament, and for carrying the same into effect within the said settlements of Honduras, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the said Order in Council for the said island of Trinidad should, save as therein-after mentioned, extend to, and be in force within, His Majesty's said settlement, at Honduras upon, from, and after the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four: provided, nevertheless, and it was further ordered, that it should be lawful for the Superintendent for the time being of the said settlements, by any proclamation or proclamations to be by him from time to time for that purpose issued, to suspend any part or parts of the said Order which he should consider inapplicable to the state and circumstances of society in the said settlements, and by any such proclamation or proclamations, to adopt the said Order in Council, or any part or parts thereof, to the state and circumstances of society in the said settlements: and it was thereby provided, that no such proclamation should in any respect be repugnant to, or inconsistent with, any thing in the said Act of Parliament contained: and it was further ordered, that the said Superintendent should transmit to His Majesty, or to one of His Principal Secretaries of State, copies of any such proclamations, for His Majesty's approbation or disallowance; and it was thereby also provided, that no such proclamation should, by the terms thereof, be made to operate and take effect, or to be binding upon His Majesty's subjects, within the said settlements, until the same should first have been approved by His Majesty, save only in cases in which it should appear to the said Superintendent, for the time being, that the delay incident to obtaining His Majesty's approbation of any such proclamation would subject His Majesty's subjects in the said settlements to serious inconvenience, in which cases any such proclamation might, by the terms thereof, be made to operate and take effect and to be binding upon His Majesty's subjects aforesaid, either from the day of the date thereof or from any such other time as should be therein for the purpose appointed, until His Majesty's pleasure should be known:

And whereas the said Superintendent of the British settlements at Honduras, in pursuance of the powers in him in that behalf vested by the last recited Order in Council, hath made and established certain regulations for adapting to the state and circumstances of those settlements, the provisions of the Order made by His Majesty in Council for giving effect to the said Act for the abolition of slavery within the colony of Trinidad :

And whereas His Majesty, having this day taken into consideration the regulations so made as aforesaid by the said Superintendent, hath been pleased to approve thereof: now it is hereby ordered by His Majesty that the said regulations shall be, and the same are hereby, confirmed and allowed :

And whereas it is by the said Act of Parliament amongst other things, enacted, that no part of the sum of twenty millions sterling shall be applied or be applicable to the purposes in the said Act mentioned, for the benefit of any person then entitled to the services of any slave in any of the colonies in the said Act mentioned, unless an Order shall have been first made by His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, declaring that adequate and satisfactory provision hath been made by law in such colony, for giving effect to the said Act, by such further and supplementary enactments as aforesaid, nor unless a copy of such Order in Council, duly certified by one of the Clerks in Ordinary of His Majesty's Privy Council shall, by the Lord President of the Council, have been transmitted to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or to the Lord High Treasurer for the time being: now, therefore, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers in His Majesty in Council, by the said recited Act in that behalf vested, His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, doth declare, and it is hereby declared, that adequate and satisfactory provision hath been made by law in the said settlements at Honduras, for giving effect to the said recited Act of Parliament, by such further and supplementary enactments as therein are mentioned :

And the Lord President of the Council, and the Right Honourable the Lord Glenelg, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

THE following is a copy of an Order of His Majesty in Council, assigning a district to the chapel at St. Day, in the parish of Gwennap, under the provisions of the 16th section of the 59 Geo. 3, c. 134:

At the Court at St. James's, the 1st of April 1835, present, the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is amongst other things enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying, into execution the purposes of the said Act, shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes; for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his or their consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto, under his or their hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments, which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits, which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if thereupon His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;" and whereas by the said Act it is further enacted, "that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish, or extra parochial place, into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the Bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary, for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels, to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division:" and whereas by an Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in the same manner and with the like consents as are required in case of division into ecclesiastical districts under the said recited Act, or this Act, to assign a particular district to any chapel of ease or parochial chapel already existing or to any chapel built, or which may hereafter be built, or acquired under the powers of the said Act, or this Act; and such district shall be under the immediate care of the Curate appointed to serve such chapel, but subject, nevertheless, to the superintendence and controul of the incumbent of the parish church; and all such Curates shall be nominated by the incumbent of the parish to the Bishop for his licence, except where the right of nomination shall already be legally vested in any other person or persons, and in every such case by the person or persons possessing such right of nomination, subject to all the laws in force relating to Stipendiary Curates, except as to the assigning of salaries to such Curates; provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese, to determine whether any and what part or proportion of the fees or dues for marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials shall be assigned to any such Curate; and whether banns of marriages shall be published, and marriages or baptisms, churchings or burials, shall be solemnized or performed in any such chapel or not; and in any case in which marriages shall be allowed in any such chapel, the Commissioners shall cause the boundaries of the district assigned to such chapel to be enrolled in the High-Court of Chancery, and in the office of the Registry of the diocese, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and no such chapel shall become a benefice by reason of any augmentation of the maintenance of the Curate, or by any grant or bounty under the provisions of any Act or Acts of Parliament or law or laws for augmenting small livings, any thing in such Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, to the contrary notwithstanding;" and whereas by another Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, made and passed in the 1st and 2d year of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" and also by another Act, made and passed in the 2d and 3d year of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to His Majesty in Council, stating that, when the last census was taken, the parish of Gwennap, in the county of Cornwall and diocese of Exeter, contained a population of 859 persons; that there is, besides the parish church, which contains accommodation for 700 persons, one chapel in the said parish, called St. Day's Chapel, lately built by His Majesty's said Commissioners, which contains accommodation for 127 persons, including 127 free seats appropriated to the use of the poor; and that divine service is regularly performed therein:

And whereas the said Commissioners have further represented to His Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should be assigned to the said last-mentioned chapel, under the provisions of the 16th section of an Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and that such district should be named St. Day's District, with boundaries as follows:

The boundary of the district to be that of the parish of Gwennap, north of the following line, viz: commencing at Hayle mills and proceeding through the centre of the stream up the valley between Wheel Jewel and Wheel Damsel to Lower Treve- than, along the left or south side of the road to Higher Treve than, including the houses in both those villages; and from thence, keeping the boundary of the manor of Tolcarne, till it meets the boundary of the parish on the Red Ruth side; which district is more particularly described in the plan accompanying the said representation:

That marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be performed in the said chapel; and that the fees for the same shall belong and be paid to the Minister of the said chapel:

That the consent of the Lord Bishop of Exeter has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act passed in the 59th year of His Majesty King George the Third; in testimony whereof the said Lord Bishop has signed and sealed the said representation; and humbly praying that His Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into His royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto, as to His Majesty's shall seem meet:

His Majesty, having taken the said representation, and the plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed division be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, July 22, 1835

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice,

Brushes of various sorts,
Hair Brooms, and Camel's Hair and other Pencils.

Patterns of the articles and a form of the tender may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be delivered at the above Office, and be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, at Somerset-place, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £500, for the due performance of the contract.

East India-House, August 12, 1835.

THE Court of Directors of the East India Company do hereby give notice,

That the East India mail of the 1st of March, which was dispatched to Alexandria by the Mediterranean packets, was delivered, on the 1st of April, to the Commander of the steam-vessel Hugh Lindsay, at Suiz; and that the Hugh Lindsay sailed from Suez, on the 3d of April, for Bombay.

The Court is of opinion, that letters which have arrived, or may arrive, in Egypt between the middle of April and the middle of September, would probably have opportunities of expeditious transmission to India by country sailing vessels; but the Court have made no arrangements for the transmission of such letters in any way, and the East India Company have not the means of doing so.

The Court issue this public notice, in order to remove any erroneous impression which may exist respecting the establishment of an East India mail through Egypt; and they think it necessary to add, that, to the best of their knowledge and belief, there are not any opportunities for the expeditious transmission to India of letters which may arrive in Egypt between September and April.

Peter Auber, Secretary.

Equivalent-Office, August 12, 1835.

THE Court of Directors of the Equivalent Company give notice, that the General Court of this Company, to be held at their House, No. 7, Dowgate-hill, London, on Wednesday the 16th of September next, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely, will also be on special affairs.

Thomas Gregory Smith, Secretary.

Albion Insurance-Office, London,
August 13, 1835.

A GENERAL Court of Proprietors of the Albion Insurance Company will be held, at the Company's House, in New Bridge-street, Blackfriars, on Thursday the 27th instant, for the election of three Auditors for the current year, in conformity to the deed of settlement.

The ballot will be opened at one o'clock, and closed at three precisely.

Edwin Charlton, Secretary.

NOTE.—The difference which appears in the Average Price of Peas in the Week ended the 17th July, and also the Aggregate Averages of the Weeks ended 17th, 24th, and 31st July, arises from a certain Return of Peas having been expunged, by authority of the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade, from that Week, in consequence of facts which have become known since the Averages were calculated.
