

recited Order in Council, hath made and established certain regulations for adapting to the state and circumstances of those settlements, the provisions of the Order made by His Majesty in Council for giving effect to the said Act for the abolition of slavery within the colony of Trinidad :

And whereas His Majesty, having this day taken into consideration the regulations so made as aforesaid by the said Superintendent, hath been pleased to approve thereof: now it is hereby ordered by His Majesty that the said regulations shall be, and the same are hereby, confirmed and allowed :

And whereas it is by the said Act of Parliament amongst other things, enacted, that no part of the sum of twenty millions sterling shall be applied or be applicable to the purposes in the said Act mentioned, for the benefit of any person then entitled to the services of any slave in any of the colonies in the said Act mentioned, unless an Order shall have been first made by His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, declaring that adequate and satisfactory provision hath been made by law in such colony, for giving effect to the said Act, by such further and supplementary enactments as aforesaid, nor unless a copy of such Order in Council, duly certified by one of the Clerks in Ordinary of His Majesty's Privy Council shall, by the Lord President of the Council, have been transmitted to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or to the Lord High Treasurer for the time being: now, therefore, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers in His Majesty in Council, by the said recited Act in that behalf vested, His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, doth declare, and it is hereby declared, that adequate and satisfactory provision hath been made by law in the said settlements at Honduras, for giving effect to the said recited Act of Parliament, by such further and supplementary enactments as therein are mentioned :

And the Lord President of the Council, and the Right Honourable the Lord Glenelg, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

At the Court at St. James's, August 12, 1835.

CEREMONIAL of the Investiture of Admiral Sir Amelius Beauclerk (commonly called Lord Amelius Beauclerk), with the Ensigns of a Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath; and of Rear-Admiral Sir Charles Adam, with the Ensigns of a Knight Commander of the said Most Honourable Military Order.

THE following Knights Grand Crosses, in their mantles and collars of the Order, assembled at St James's-Palace, viz. His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland; His Royal Highness the Duke of Cambridge; Lord Howden; his Grace the Duke of Wellington; Lord Hill; Lord Cowley; the Honourable Sir Edward Paget; Lord Viscount Conbermere; the Honourable Sir Galbraith-Lowry Cole; the Right Honourable Sir George Murray; Sir William-Henry Clinton; the Honourable Sir Charles Colville; the Right Honourable Sir James Kempt; Sir George-Townsend Walker, Bart.; Sir Thomas Hislop, Bart.; Lord Howard of Effingham; the Earl of Rosslyn; the Right Honourable Sir Charles Bagot; Sir George Martin; Sir Thomas Byam Martin; Sir William Houstoun; Lord Stratford; the Honourable Sir William Lumley; Sir James Willoughby Gordon, Bart.; Sir Thomas Masterman-Hardy, Bart.; Lord Viscount Palmerston; Sir Davidge Gould; Sir George Anson; Lord Viscount Canterbury; the Earl of Minto; Sir John Wells; and Lord Robert-Edward-Henry Somerset; attended by the under-named Officers of the Order, in their mantles, chains, and badges, viz. Walter Aston Blount, Esq. (Chester Herald), Genealogist; Algernon Greville, Esq. Bath King of Arms; and Sir William Woods (Clarenceux King of Arms), Deputy Register and Secretary.

At two o'clock the Knights Grand Crosses were called over by Bath King of Arms, and, with the Officers of the Order, proceeded into the presence of the Sovereign in the Throne-room, with the usual reverences.

Then, by His Majesty's command, Admiral Lord Amelius Beauclerk was introduced into the Royal Presence, between the two Junior Knights Grand Crosses, preceded by Bath King of Arms, bearing the ribband, badge, and star of a Knight Grand Cross, upon a crimson velvet cushion.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland having thereupon received from Bath King of Arms the ribband and badge, presented them to the Sovereign, and Lord Amelius Beauclerk, kneeling, His Majesty was graciously pleased to put the same over the Admiral's right shoulder; his Lordship, rising, had the honour to kiss the Sovereign's hand, and, having received from His Majesty the star of the Order, retired.

Then, by command of the Sovereign, Rear-Admiral Sir Charles Adam was conducted, with the usual reverences, to His Majesty, preceded by Sir William Woods (the Officer of Arms attendant upon the Knights Commanders), bearing upon a crimson velvet cushion, the star, ribband, and badge of the second class of the Order.

The sword of state being thereupon delivered to His Majesty by His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, Sir Charles Adam, kneeling, was knighted therewith, after which he had the honour to kiss His Majesty's hand.

Then the Officer of Arms, on his knee, having presented to the Sovereign the ribband and badge of a Knight Commander, the King was pleased to invest Sir Charles Adam with the same.
