

limits, and boundary lines of the wards into which it is provided, by the said Act, that certain boroughs of large population should be divided, and what portions of such boroughs should be included therein respectively, within the space of sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, instead of the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act; and whereas Robert Philip Tyrwhitt, of the Middle-temple, Esq. and Edward Gillam White, of the Inner-temple, Esq. the barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, to revise the burgess' and councillors' lists of the borough of Lichfield, in the present year (the said borough of Lichfield being one of the boroughs included in the said schedule), did, within sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, in due manner, determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards of the said borough, according to the provisions of the said Act, and what portion of the said borough shall be included therein respectively: and the said barristers, after the division of such borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, and within the said period of sixty days, did, in due manner, apportion, among the several wards of such borough, the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: and the said barristers have duly transmitted a copy of the particulars of such division, and of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the said borough to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the following words, that is to say:

BOROUGH OF THE CITY OF LICHFIELD.

"We, Robert Philip Tyrwhitt, of the Middle-temple, and Edward Gillam White, of the Inner-temple, Barristers at Law, having been duly appointed by Thomas Lord Denman, being the Senior Judge in the Commission of Assize for the Summer Circuit in this year for the Oxford Circuit, to revise the lists of citizens and burgesses for the borough of the said city of Lichfield, and to execute the other duties required by the Statute, fifth and sixth William the Fourth, c. 76, and having heard evidence in that behalf, and having perambulated the boundaries of the said borough, and examined the rate books of the different parishes within the same, do hereby, in pursuance of the directions of the said Act, divide the said borough into two wards, to be named the North Ward and the South Ward, and we do determine and set out the extent, limit, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such borough shall be included therein respectively, in manner following, that is to say:—that the said North Ward shall contain as well the close of the cathedral church of Lichfield, as also so much of the said city and county as is situate on the northern or left-hand side of a line drawn along the centre of the road leading from Walsall, in the direction through the said borough towards Burton-on-Trent, such line beginning from a point at that place in the hamlet of Tiptehill, where the said road enters and cuts the boundary of the said city and county of the same city in the direction aforesaid, such line being produced and extended along the centre of Sandford-street, Bird-street, as far as Sadler-street, Sadler-street, Butcher-row, sometimes called Dam or Conduit-street, Tamworth-street, Greenhill and Burton-road, to a point in the centre of the said last-mentioned road where the same again cuts the boundary of the said city and county of, the same city, in the township of Fullin, or of Streathay, or in one or both of them. And we do determine that the said South Ward shall contain so much of the said borough as is situate south, or to the right-hand side of the line hereinbefore described; and we declare that the words right-hand side and left-hand side hereinbefore used in describing the limits of the above wards, are to be taken and understood as used by a person coming from Walsall along the line hereinbefore described towards Burton-on-Trent. And having regard as well to the number of persons rated to the relief of the poor in each ward as to the aggregate amount of the sums at which all the said persons are so rated, we do assign nine councillors to the North Ward, and nine councillors to the South Ward.—In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands this seventh day of November, 1835.

(Signed) Robert Philip Tyrwhitt.
Edward Gillam White."

Now therefore, His Majesty, by advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby approve of such determination of the said barristers and of the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of the said borough, and doth order the same to be published in the London Gazette accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court at Brighton, the 4th day of December, 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of his present Majesty, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," which received the Royal assent on the ninth of September last, after reciting that it was expedient that certain boroughs of large population should be divided into wards, before any election of councillors for such boroughs should take place, it was, among other things, enacted, that every borough in the schedule (A) to the said Act annexed, should be divided into the number of wards mentioned in such schedule, in conjunction with the name of such borough; and that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions thereinbefore contained, to revise the burgess' and councillors' lists of any borough in the present year, and he and they was and were thereby required, within the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such borough should be included therein respectively, and the copy of the particulars of such division should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, and (if His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council, should approve such determination) should be published in