

said schedule: and the said barristers have duly transmitted a copy of the particulars of such division, and of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the said borough, to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, Thomas Clement Sneyd Kynnersley, of the Middle-temple, Barrister at Law, and Christopher William Puller, of Lincoln's-inn, Barrister at Law, having been duly appointed by the Right Honourable Lord Denman, being the Senior Judge in the Commission of Assize for the Summer Circuit in this year, for the county of Monmouth, to revise the lists of burgesses for the borough of Newport, and to execute the other duties required by the Statute, fifth and sixth William the Fourth, cap. 76, and having heard evidence in that behalf, and having perambulated the said borough, and examined the rate books of the different parishes within the same, do hereby, in pursuance of the directions of the said Act, divide the said borough into two wards, to be called East Ward and West Ward; and we do determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such borough shall be included therein respectively, in manner following, that is to say:—that East Ward shall contain such part of the parish of Christ Church as is situate within the limits of the borough, and such parts of the old borough of Newport and the parish of Saint Woollos as are included between the River Usk on the east, and a line drawn from the centre of the bridge over the Usk along the centre of High-street, and continued along the centre of Commercial-street and commercial road, as far as the point at which the same is intersected by a line drawn along the centre of Pottery-lane, on the north and west, and a line drawn along the centre of Pottery-lane and continued in the same direction to the river Usk on the south; and that West Ward shall contain all such parts of the said borough as are not included in the above description: and, having regard as well to the number of persons rated to the relief of the poor in each ward, as to the aggregate amount of the sums at which all the said persons are so rated, we do assign nine councillors to each of the said wards. In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands this twenty-first day of October 1835.

(Signed) T. C. Sneyd Kynnersley.
C. W. Puller."

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby approve of such determination of the said barristers, and of the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of the said borough, and doth order the same to be published in the London Gazette accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court at Brighton, the 4th day of December
1835,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An

"Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," which received the Royal assent on the ninth of September last, after reciting that it was expedient that certain boroughs of large population should be divided into wards before any election of councillors for such boroughs should take place, it was, among other things, enacted, that every borough in the schedule (A.) to the said Act annexed, should be divided into the number of wards mentioned in such schedule, in conjunction with the name of such borough; and that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions therein-before contained, to revise the burgess and councillors' lists of any borough in the present year, and he and they was and were thereby required, within the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such borough should be included therein respectively, and the copy of the particulars of such division should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (if His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council, should approve such determination) should be published in the London Gazette, and every such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be deemed to be divided into such wards as should be so determined and set out as aforesaid, and such division should continue and be in force until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament: and it is thereby further enacted, that the said barrister or barristers should, after the division of the borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, apportion, among the several wards of such borough, the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: provided always, that the number of councillors assigned to each ward should be a number divisible by three, and a copy of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the borough should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (subject as aforesaid to the approval of His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council) should be published in the London Gazette, and the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be the number to be elected in such ward, and should so continue until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament: and it was thereby further enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty (if he should think fit, by the advice of His Privy Council) to order any days and times, before the first of February next, for doing the several matters required and authorised by the said Act to be done, in lieu of the several days and times for the present year therein-before specified, or any of them: and, in such case, all matters mentioned in such order should be done on and within such days and times as should be mentioned respectively in that behalf in such order, as if the days and times mentioned in such order had in every instance been mentioned in the said Act, instead of the days and times therein-before respectively mentioned in that behalf: and whereas, by an Order in Council, dated the thirtieth day of September last, His Majesty (by advice of His Privy Council) did order, that it
