

Commissioners upon the owners or occupiers of premises within the said district, together with the sum of four pounds, which will be due for interest thereon up to the said 25th day of March next, from which day interest on the said sum of two hundred pounds will cease and be no longer payable.—Dated this 15th day of January 1836.

John Kersey, Clerk to the Commissioners.

To Mrs. Sarah Harrison.

IN pursuance of the directions contained in an Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for dividing and inclosing the open and common fields and meadows, common pastures, and other commonable lands and grounds, within the parish of Milton Bryant, in the county of Bedford," we, Sir Robert Harry Inglis, Bart. of Milton Bryant aforesaid, and William Cooke, of the same place, owners and proprietors of lands and hereditaments in the said parish, which are subject, by the said Act, to the payment of corn rent in lieu of tythes, and assessed to the poor's rate of the said parish at the sum of one hundred pounds and upwards, do hereby give notice, that application will be made to the Justices at the Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the said county of Bedford, in the first week after the 31st day of March 1836, to have two persons named or appointed by the Justices then and there assembled to be, together with a third person to be named and chosen by such two persons, arbitrators or referees for enquiring into and ascertaining, by the means in the said Act mentioned, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of Bedford for the twenty-one years then last past; which said three arbitrators or referees, or the major part of them, shall by their report, to be made and delivered to the Court of Quarter Sessions to be held in the first week next after the 24th day of June 1836, set forth such average price, to the end that the respective yearly tithe rents payable to the Rector of the said parish, in lieu of tythes, may be increased or diminished accordingly; and that the exact amount of the yearly rent or sum to which the same shall severally be so increased or diminished shall be declared by the order of the said Court, conformably with the directions of the said Act.—Dated this 13th day of January 1836.

William Cooke.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that, in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the second year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for inclosing lands in the parish of Whittington, in the county of Derby," we, Henry Dixon, Charles Hugh May, George Marr, George Jenkinson, Elizabeth Jenkinson, Charles Steade, Thomas Gillett, Joseph Unwin, George Thorpe, Joseph Thorpe, and William Lindley, being owners and proprietors of lands and estates in the said parish of Whittington, subjected to the payment of annual rents or sums of money respectively, in lieu of great and small tythes and moduses, and being assessed to the poor's rate of the said parish at the sum of one hundred pounds and upwards, do intend, by writing under our respective hands (by force and virtue of a power given, or intended to be given, or reserved to us by the said Act) to apply at the Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the county of Derby, in the first week after the 31st day of March next, namely, on Tuesday the 5th day of April next (which sessions would heretofore have been held in the week after the Feast of Easter), to have two persons named and appointed by the Justices then and there assembled to be, together with a third person to be named and chosen by such two persons, arbitrators or referees for enquiring into and ascertaining, by or from, or by means of, the London Gazette, if the returns of the average price of corn and grain shall have been published therein, and in case of no such publication, then by such ways and means as they shall think equitable or proper, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat throughout England, for the fourteen years then last past, to the intent that the said three arbitrators or referees, or the major part of them, shall by their report, to be made and delivered to the Court of Quarter Sessions to be held in and for the said county of Derby, in the first week after the 24th day of June next (which last-mentioned sessions would heretofore have been held in the first week after the Translation of Saint Thomas the Martyr then next ensuing), set forth such average price; and, in case it shall by such report appear that such average price of a bushel of such wheat is more or less than the average price thereof set forth in the award made in pursuance of the said Act, by the value of three pence or upwards, then that the said yearly rents or sums of money may be increased or diminished as shall be declared by order of the said Court.—Dated this 14th day of January 1836.
