

any interest in, or claim against, the property of the said Edward Barry, deceased, to appear before me, within six months from the date hereof, and shew cause, if any they can, why the property of the said Testator should not be made available to satisfy the said judgment.

JOHN MILLER, Judicial Referee.

Port of Spain, Trinidad, 6th February 1835.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause wherein Samuel Boddington and others are plaintiffs, and James Seton and others are defendants, with the approbation of George Boone Roupell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-Room, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on the 30th day of June 1836, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon of the same day, in one lot;

A plantation or estate, called the Key, or Lavington's Estate, situate in the Island of Saint Christopher, in the West Indies, and the right and interest in the labour of the apprenticed labourers upon the said estate.

Printed particulars may be had at the said Master's Chambers, Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane; of Messrs. Teesdale, Symes, and Weston, 31, Fenchurch-Street; of Messrs. Seton, Plomer, and Seton, 12, George-Street, Adelphi; and of Messrs. Oliverson, Denby, and Larie, Frederick's-Place, Old Jewry.

Estates in Suffolk, Norfolk, Dorsetshire, and Middlesex.

TO be sold, in the latter end of the month of May next, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Smith versus Hollond, and under the direction of James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, London, the valuable and very desirable estates of the late Edward Hollond, Esq. still remaining unsold, comprising

The Benhall Estate, Suffolk, with the manor, advowson, mansion-house, park, great tithes, woods, plantations, and sundry valuable farms, principally freehold, tithes free and land tax redeemed, and containing together upwards of 1400A. of valuable land, most respectably tenanted, except the mansion-house, park, woods, and home farm, which are in hand.

The estate is situated on the high turnpike-road from Ipswich to Yarmouth, distant from London eighty-eight miles, in a fine sporting and highly cultivated country, possessing every recommendation which capital roads, a fine soil, and good neighbourhood can bestow, and, whether for residence or mere investment, offering a most desirable opportunity.

The Thorpe Abbots Estate, Norfolk, consisting of the Manor of Thorpe Abbots, otherwise Cornwallis, and three farms, lying contiguous, in Thorpe Abbots and Billingsford, and containing together upwards of 900A. of rich arable, meadow, pasture, and wood land, in the occupation of responsible tenants.

This estate is intersected by the high road from Ipswich to Yarmouth by Sole Inn, from which it is distant about two miles, and ninety-two miles from London, and is bounded by the River Waveney on the south; it offers a most desirable object for investment.

The West Bexington Estate, Dorsetshire, comprising the Manor, or reputed Manor, of West Bexington, and two very desirable farms, the one consisting of 675A. of land, in the occupation of Mr. John Tacon, and the other in hand, containing 275A. or thereabouts.

This estate is situated on the sea coast between Weymouth and Bridport, twelve miles from the former, and four miles from the latter place, and about twelve miles from Dorchester, is all freehold, and the land tax redeemed.

Valuable fee farm rents, in the several Counties of Berks, Buckingham, Gloucester, Northampton, Oxford, and Warwick.

A capital leasehold mansion, being No. 25, on the south side of Cavendish-Square, holden of his Grace the Duke of Portland, and a newly erected villa residence, being No. 7, in Langford-Place, Abbey-Road, Saint John's Wood.

Printed descriptive particulars, with plans and conditions of sale annexed, will be prepared and ready for delivery in due time previous to the sale, and further and more detailed advertisements will appear in the London and country newspapers, announcing the time of sale, with as little delay as may be; and, in the mean time, further information may be obtained on application to Messrs. A. and J. Crabtree, Solicitors, Halesworth, Suffolk, or Messrs. White and Borrett, Solicitors, 1, Frederick's-Place, Old Jewry, London.

Between Lieutenant-General Sir Henry Bayly, Plaintiff; and Henry Harris and others, Defendants.

WHEREAS by an Order of His Majesty's High Court of Exchequer at Westminster, bearing date the 14th day of December 1835, and made in a cause wherein Lieutenant-General Sir Henry Bayly is plaintiff, and Henry Harris and others are defendants, it is referred to Jefferies Spranger, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state to the Court whether there are any, and if any what, charges or incumbrances affecting the funds therein named, or any part or parts thereof, the same being a sum of £20,436 13s. 7d. Bank Three per Cent. Consolidated Annuities, consisting of the sum of £12,987 like annuities, and the accumulations which have arisen therefrom, and which sum of £12,987 Consolidated Bank Annuities arose from the investment of seven-twelfth parts of the moneys arising from the sale, in the month of February 1794, of a certain patent, called Killigrew's Patent, and which seven-twelfth parts of the said patent belonged to Thomas Harris, and were, together with his interest in certain other letters patent, and in certain property connected with Covent Garden Theatre, assigned by him, by an indenture bearing date the 26th day of June 1715, to Robert Burton, Rowland Stephenson, James Farrer, Thomas Longman, and Hugh Dive, as Trustees thereof, and as is alleged in trust, amongst other things, for certain tontines or annuitants by way of tontine, as in the pleadings stated:—therefore, all persons tontines or annuitants by way of tontine, as well as others claiming to have any charge or incumbrance affecting the said funds, or any part or parts thereof, are hereby to take notice, that they are, on or before the 18th day of April 1836, to come in and prove their claims before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Tanfield-Court, in the Inner Temple, London, or in default thereof they will be preemptorily excluded the benefit of the said Order.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Dowson against Gaskoin, the Creditors of Elizabeth Smith, late of New-Road, Brighton, in the County of Sussex, Spinster (who died in the month of October 1834), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before Sir Giffin Wilson, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Dowson versus Gaskoin, the Next of Kin of Elizabeth Smith, late of New-Road, Brighton, in the County of Sussex, Spinster (who died in the month of October 1834), being at her death, or the personal representative or representatives of any of them who have since died, are, by their Solicitors, forthwith to come in and prove their kindred and make out their claims before Sir Giffin Wilson, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Le Jeune against Le Jeune, the Creditors of Arnoldus Le Jeune, of Parson's-Green, in the Parish of Fulham, in the County of Middlesex, deceased (who died in October 1820), are, on or before the 25th day of April 1836, to come in and prove their debts before the Right Honourable Robert Lord Henley, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be preemptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

WHEREAS by indentures of lease and release and assignment, bearing date respectively the 1st and 2d days of January 1836, Joseph Athey and William Athey, both of Alnwick, in the County of Northumberland, Cabinet-Makers, have conveyed and assigned all their real and personal estate and effects to Thomas Sowerby, of the Town and County of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, Timber-Merchant, William Embleton, of Warendorf, in the County of Northumberland, Farmer, George Tate, of Alnwick aforesaid, Linen-Draper, William Hindmarsh, of Alnwick aforesaid, Tanner, Andrew Bolton, of Alnwick aforesaid, Grocer, and George Richardson, of Alnwick aforesaid, Joiner, upon trust, for the benefit of all the Creditors of the said Joseph Athey and William Athey; and that the said indentures were executed by the said Joseph