

Council, of any such Acts of General Assembly, or Ordinances, or Orders in Council, as might be requisite for making and establishing such several rules and regulations as aforesaid, or any of them, or for carrying the same, or any of them, into full and complete effect:

And whereas it is by the said Act further enacted, that no part of the said sum of twenty millions of pounds sterling shall be applied or shall be applicable to the purposes therein aforesaid, for the benefit of any person entitled to the services of any slave in any of the colonies therein aforesaid, unless an Order shall have been first made by His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, declaring that adequate and satisfactory provision hath been made by law in such colony for giving effect to the said Act, by such further and supplementary enactments as therein mentioned; nor unless a copy of such Order in Council, duly certified by one of the Clerks in Ordinary of His Majesty's Privy Council, shall, by the Lord President of the Council, have been transmitted to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or to the Lord High Treasurer, for the time being, for their or his guidance or information; and every such Order shall be published three several times in the London Gazette, and shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament, within six weeks next after the date thereof, if Parliament shall be then in session, and if not, within six weeks from the then next ensuing session of Parliament:

And whereas, in order to carry into effect the objects of the said recited Act, an Act hath been passed by the Governor, Council, and Assembly of the island of Tobago, intituled "An Act to carry into effect the provisions of an Act of the Imperial Parliament of Great Britain and Ireland, intituled 'An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves;'" and also an Act to amend an Act, intituled "An Act to carry into effect the provisions of an Act of the Imperial Parliament of Great Britain and Ireland, intituled 'An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves;'" and to repeal certain clauses of an Act, commonly called the Slave Act,

"passed on or about the fifteenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, and to substitute other clauses in this Act in lieu thereof;" and also an Act, intituled "An Act to establish rules and regulations for the classification of those persons hereafter to become apprenticed labourers, and for ascertaining to which class they shall respectively belong;" and also an Act, intituled "An Act to authorise the temporary appointment of special magistrates, for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of an Act of the Imperial Parliament of Great Britain and Ireland, intituled 'An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves;'" and also an Act to amend an Act, intituled "An Act to carry into effect the provisions of an Act of the Imperial Parliament of Great Britain and Ireland, intituled 'An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies;'" for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves;" and also an Act, intituled "An Act to provide for the building of places of confinement and punishment, and to establish a police force in the said island, and also to repeal fifty-fifth, fifty-sixth, and fifty-seventh clauses of the Act, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect the provisions of an Act of the Imperial Parliament of Great Britain and Ireland, intituled 'An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves;'"

And whereas it is considered by His Majesty in Council, that adequate and satisfactory provision hath been made by law in the said island of Tobago, for giving effect to the said recited Act of Parliament, by such further and supplementary enactments as therein mentioned, according to the true intent and meaning of the said Act:

His Majesty is, therefore, pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to declare, and it is hereby declared, that adequate and satisfactory provision hath been made by law in the island of Tobago, for giving effect to the said recited
