

Bankruptcy of Gottfried von Vahl, Greifswalde.

By a decree of this day the estate and effects of Gottfried von Vahl, Councillor of Commerce, Knight, &c. have been formally declared bankrupt, and, by a proclamation issued on the same day, the Creditors are required, sub pena preclusi, to specify and prove their claims on the above estate, in this Court, at Ten o'Clock in Morning, on either of the three days fixed for the liquidation, viz. the 16th of July, 6th of August, and 27th of August next; and likewise to substantiate any preference that may be deemed to attach to any particular claim. Judgment of exclusion will be passed on the 17th September next. At the first meeting, on the 16th of July, the Creditors are to decide upon the choice of the Assignees, and of a Solicitor to the estate, and other matters connected therewith, with a view to simplifying the proceedings in this Bankruptcy. Any person not appearing will be held as having consented to the resolutions of the major part of the Creditors present; at the same time foreign Creditors are desired to appear either personally or by attorney, in default of which the resolutions of the Creditors present will, in all cases, be deemed binding upon the absentees.

Given at Greifswalde, this 20th of May 1836.
