The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled " An Act to regulate the trade of the " British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that the several ports therein in that behalf mentioned shall be free warehousing ports for all the purposes of the said Act ; and it is thereby further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America, to be a free warehousing port for all or any of the purposes of the said Act ; and that every port so appointed shall be, for all the purposes expressed in such Order, a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same :

Foreign-Office, November 3, 1836.

A NOTE, of which the following is a translation, has been received by Viscount Palmerston, G. C. B. His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, from M. Tricoupi, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of His Majesty the King of Greece:

(Translation.)

MY LORD, London, November 2, 1836.

IN order to prevent the Cholera, which is spreading itself more and more in Italy, from being introduced into Greece, the Government of the King, my august master, resolved to establish in Greece two special provisional lazarettoes for vessels, passengers, and goods proceeding from places in which the cholera prevails.

The establishment of these two lazarettoes has already taken place, one at Aghia, near Patras, and the other at Delos, near Syra.

All vessels, passengers, and goods proceeding from countries in which the cholera prevails, will be sent to these lazarettoes, in order to perform quarantine, and will not be admitted under any pretext, into any other port in the Kingdom.

The quarantine will be for seventeen days.

The necessary measures have already been adopted in order that vessels, passengers, and goods may have every requisite security, both by sea and land, and also every facility of which circumstances may admit.

Vessels proceeding from places in which there only exists a suspicion of cholera, will not be sent into those two special lazarettoes, but will be subject, in each port of the Kingdom, to a quarantine of observation of eleven days.

In hastening to communicate to your Lordship the foregoing sanitary regulations, I request you will accept the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.

(Signed) S. TRICOUPI.
