

diocese and archdeaconry of Durham, and shall be included in, and form part of, the said diocese of York and of the archdeaconry of Cleveland; and that the church and the clergy, and others your Majesty's subjects within the said parish, shall be exempted and released from all jurisdiction, authority, and controul of the said Edward Bishop of Durham, and of his successors bishops of Durham, and of the present and every future Archdeacon of Durham, and of the said dean and chapter, and shall be under and subject to the episcopal jurisdiction, authority, and controul of the said Archbishop of York, and of his successors archbishops of York, for ever: and under the archidiaconal jurisdiction of the Archdeacon of Cleveland for the time being.

And we further recommend and propose, with the like consent of the said Edward Archbishop of York, testified as aforesaid, that such parts of the property, possessions, and revenues of the said Archbishop and of the see of York, as are particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed (which schedule we recommend and propose shall be considered and taken as part of this scheme), shall, according to the provisions of the said Act, be transferred from the said Edward Archbishop of York, and his successors in the said see of York, to the said Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon, and his successors bishops of Ripon, in part endowment of the said bishopric of Ripon, to be by him and them held and enjoyed in right of the see of Ripon for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, that all and every the manors or lordships, or reputed manors or lordships, messuages, farms, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, with all their appurtenances, mines, minerals, royalties, franchises, liberties, privileges, rents, revenues, dues, and payments whatsoever, and all other the possessions and revenues of the said Edward Bishop of Durham, of which he is seised or possessed, or otherwise entitled to in possession, reversion, remainder, or expectancy in right of his see and bishopric, situate, lying, and being, issuing or in anywise arising or accruing, or to issue, arise, or accrue in right of his said see and bishopric in Howden and Howdenshire, Northallerton and Allertonshire, Borrowby, Brompton, Romanby, Osmotherly, Sowerby Grange, in the said county of York, and all the estate, right, title, and interest whatsoever which may now belong to or be vested in the said Edward Bishop of Durham in right of his said see and bishopric, of, in, or to the same hereditaments and premises, and every part thereof, shall, according to the provisions of the said Act, be transferred from the said Edward Bishop of Durham, and his successors in the said see of Durham, to the said Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon, and his successors bishops of Ripon, in further endowment of the said bishopric of Ripon, to be by him and them also held and enjoyed in right of the said see of Ripon for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, that the said Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon shall be entitled to all the rents, fines, profits, and emoluments which may have been already paid or become due from or in respect of such parts as aforesaid of the property, possessions, and revenues of the said Bishop and see of Durham, or any or either of them, since the day of the decease of William late Bishop of Durham; and that the said Edward Bishop of Durham shall forthwith pay over to the said Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon all such rents, fines, profits, and emoluments whatsoever which may have been paid to or on account of him the said Edward Bishop of Durham, after deducting therefrom all reasonable and proper expences incurred in the collection or receipt thereof.

And we further recommend and propose, that for the purposes of the said Act, and so as to leave to the Bishop of Durham for the time being, after such transfer as aforesaid, an average annual income of eight thousand pounds, the said Edward Bishop of Durham, and his successors bishops of Durham for the time being, shall pay, or cause to be paid, to our credit, into the Bank of England, to an account intituled "Account with the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," the fixed annual sum of eleven thousand two hundred pounds, by half-yearly payments, on or before the first day of February and the first day of August in every year; and that the first of such payments shall be made on or before the first day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty seven; and that whenever a vacancy of the see of Durham shall happen on any other day than the first day of February or first day of August, then the next half-yearly payment shall be apportioned between the bishop making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the bishop succeeding to the see, according to the time which shall have elapsed from the first day of February or first day of August preceding (as the case may be) to the day of the vacancy inclusive, and such proportions shall be paid by the respective parties accordingly.
