Mrs. Mary Girling, deceased.

WHEREAS Benjamin Girling, late of Wrentham, Suffolk, Cooper, who died in February last, by his will bequeathed all the residue of his personal estate to be equally divided between the nearest relatives of his late wife (before her marriage Mary Mapes, of Frostenden, spinster), and the testator directed all such relatives to establish their claims, in writing, within twelve calendar months after his decease; and in default thereof to be wholly excluded; notice is therefore given, that all persons must deliver their claims to us accordingly and establish them, in writing, within six calendar months from the date hereof, or they will be excluded all benefit under the above bequest.—Beccles, Suffolk, 24th January 1837.

FISKE and CLARKE, Solicitors to the Administrator, with the will annexed.

WHEREAS Richard Croly, late of Kilshanna-lodge, in the county of Cork, Esq. deceased, by his last will and testament, dated the 29th day of January 1821, bequeathed a legacy, payable after the death of a certain person therein named, to one Sarah St. Clair, otherwise Logan, and to her four children, namely, Richard Le Viscomte Croly, Henry Wellesly Croly, Frances Sarah Croly, and Anne Sarah Croly, said several persons being in said will described as then residing in England; and whereas the said legacy hath become lately payable, but the above-named persons cannot be discovered. Now this is to require that the said persons, or the survivors of them, or any person lawfully representing them, or any of them, shall make application, with proof of identity, to Richard Hemphill, 3, Great Clarence-street, Dublin, Solicitor of the Administratrix of the said Will.—Dated this 2d day of January 1837.

Charles Taylor's Dividend.

THE creditors of Charles Taylor, late of Chapel-field, in the city of Norwich, Innkeeper, who have executed his deed of assignment, may receive a dividend of 6s. 4d. in the pound upon the amount of their respective debts on application at the Counting-room of the Norwich Wine Company, No. 2, St. Giles's-street, on or after Friday the 3d day of February next.
