

And whereas the inhabitant householders of the town of Devonport, and parish of Stoke Damerel, in the county of Devon, have presented a petition to Us, setting forth therein, amongst other things, that the town of Devonport, and parish of Stoke Damerel, is not a town corporate; but the petitioners submit, that it is expedient that the said town of Devonport, and parish of Stoke Damerel, should be incorporated; the petitioners, therefore, most humbly pray, that We will be pleased, under the provisions of the said recited Act, to grant to the inhabitants of the said town of Devonport, and parish of Stoke Damerel, a separate charter of incorporation; and that We will also be pleased, by such charter, to extend to the said inhabitants within such district, as shall or may be set forth in Our Royal Charter, the several powers and provisions in the said Act contained:

Now, therefore, We, having taken the said petition into consideration, do hereby give notice, that Our Privy Council will take the same into consideration on the twenty-eighth day of February next ensuing the date hereof.

Given at Our Court, at Brighton, this twenty-eighth day of January one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, and in the seventh year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION.

WILLIAM R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of Our reign, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales" it is, amongst other things, enacted, that if the inhabitant householders of any town or borough in England and Wales shall petition Us to grant to them a charter of incorporation, it shall be lawful for Us by any such charter (if we shall think fit by advice of Our Privy Council to grant the same) to extend to the inhabitants of any such town or borough within the district to be set forth in such charter, the powers and provisions in the said Act contained: provided, nevertheless, that notice of every such petition, and of the time when it shall please Us to order that the same be taken into consideration by Our Privy Council, shall be published, by Royal Proclamation in the London Gazette, one month at least before such petition shall be so considered:

And whereas the inhabitant householders of the borough of Llanelly, in the county of Carnarvon, have presented a petition to Us, setting forth therein, amongst other things, that the borough of Llanelly contains a population of four thousand and upwards, and that it is rapidly increasing in population, commerce, and wealth, and that it will in a short period be one of the most important commercial towns in the principality: and further, that the said borough of Llanelly is a borough by prescription, with a portreeve and an unlimited number of burgesses:

and further, that the said portreeve and burgesses have never been invested with any corporate powers, any further than the management of the property belonging to the said burgesses; the petitioners, therefore, pray that We would be graciously pleased to grant unto them a charter of incorporation, that they may be thereby enabled to participate in all the powers and provisions of the said recited Act:

Now, therefore, We, having taken the said petition into consideration, do hereby give notice, that Our Privy Council will take the same into consideration on the twenty-eighth day of February next ensuing the date hereof.

Given at Our Court at Brighton, this twenty-eighth day of January one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, and in the seventh year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 28th day of January 1837.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking of the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the divisions of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the elections of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place:

And whereas the justices of the peace, assembled at the general quarter sessions of the peace, held at Bodmin, in and for the county of Cornwall, on the third day of January one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, have presented their petition to His Majesty, representing that the number of polling places for the eastern division of the county of Cornwall, is insufficient, and therefore praying, that town of Callington may be a polling place for the said eastern division of the said county:
