

and with the advice of His Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the said several places mentioned in the said petition, namely, the borough of Brighton, the town and port of Hastings, the ancient town of Rye, and the town of Cuckfield, shall be polling places for the eastern division of the said county of Sussex; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county, assembled in quarter sessions or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of His Majesty's reign, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said eastern division of the said county into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 28th day of January 1837,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking of the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying, that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for any county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the divisions of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or divisions into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place:

And whereas the justices of the peace acting in and for the west riding of the county of York, at the general Christmas quarter sessions of the peace, assembled at Witherby, in the said riding, on the third of January one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, at Wakefield, in the same riding; on the fourth day of January one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, and at Doncaster, in the same riding, on the eleventh of January one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, have presented their three several petitions to His Majesty, representing, that the number of polling places for the west riding of the said county are insufficient, and therefore praying, that Ripon, New Delph, in the township of Quick, and Pontefract may be polling places for the said west riding:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, having taken the said petitions into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of His reign, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, declare, order, and direct that the said several places mentioned in the said petitions, namely, Ripon, New Delph, and Pontefract, shall be polling places for the said west riding; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said west riding, assembled in quarter sessions or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of His Majesty's reign, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said west riding into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.
