SYDNEY JAMES SMITH, deceased.

THIS Gentleman was a Lieutenant in the service of the Honourable East India Company, and died at Bombay, on the 24th of April 1834, a bachelor, without a parent. His brothers, Edward Atkins Smith, Frederick Smith, and Henry Smith (the first of whom is supposed to be resident in or near the county of Devon, and the other two abroad), are requested to apply to James Wedderburn Christie, at No. 3. Crown-court, Old Broad-street, London, and they may hear of something to their advantage. And notice is hereby given, that the said Mr. Christie is about to apply for letters of administration of the personal estate of the deceased to be granted to him, by the Prerogative Court of Canterbury, as the lawful attorney of a creditor of the deceased, resident at Bombay.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Pistell versus Wood, and other causes, with the approbation of Lord Henley, one of the Masters of the said Court;

A copyhold messuage, garden, and premises, situate in Well-street, in Woodbridge, within and held of the manor of Woodbridge, late Priory, in the county of Suffolk, late in the occupation of Mr. John Wood, jun.

The time and place of sale will be shortly advertised, and particulars, which are preparing, may then be had (gratis) at the said Master's chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London; of Messrs. Gregory, Solicitors, Clement's-inn, London; of Mr. Bromley, Solicitor, South-square, Gray's-inn, London; and of Mr. Wood, jun. Solicitor, Woodbridge.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Hudson versus Hartness, it was referred to John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire whether Edward Hopperton was living or dead, and if dead, when he died, and whether he left any and what children or descendants surviving him, and if he did leave any such children or descendants living or dead, and if dead, who were their personal representatives, and whether Jane Jackson was living or dead, and if dead, when she died; and whether Jane Hartness was living or dead, and if dead, when she died, and whether she left any and what issue her surviving, and whether such issue were then living, or if dead, when they died, and who were their legal personal representatives, and whether Peter Thelwall, or any other person claiming under him, was entitled to the sum of £63, for the amount of stock and cash arising therefrom, in the pleadings mentioned:—therefore, any person or persons claiming to be interested in the before-mentioned inquiries is, or are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 20th day of May 1837, to come in and establish such claim or claims before the said Master, Mr. Dowdeswell, at his office, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof such person or persons will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Wilson against Wilson, the creditors of Henry Pettit, late of Hereson, in the parish of Saint Lawrence, in the isle of Thanet, deceased (who died on or about the 27th day of March 1830), are, on or before the 24th day of May 1837, to come in and prove their debts before William Brougham, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Goren against Atkinson, the creditors of John Ames, late of Paternoster-row, in the city of London, and of Wandsworth, in the county of Surrey, Silk-Manufacturer, deceased (who died in March 1831), are, on or before the 27th day of May 1837, to come in and prove their debts before the Right Honourable Robert Lord Henley, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Joy against Radcliffe, the creditors of the Reverend John Dean, late of the University of Oxford, Doctor in Divinity, deceased (who died on or about the 13th day of April 1833), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before the Right Honourable Robert Lord Henley,
