A DISPATCH has been received by Viscount Palmerston, G. C. B. His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, from Alexander Turnbull, Esq. (Translation.)

Administration of Bridges, Roads, Light-houses, and Lights.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Light-house of La Garoupe or of Antibes (Department of the Var).

MARINERS are informed, that from and after the 1st July next, a fixed light will be exhibited, during the whole night, from the tower which has just been constructed on the peninsula of La Garoupe, one mile and a half to the south of Antibes, near the chapel of Notre Dame de la Garde (by 43° 33' 51" lat. and 4° 47' 44" east longitude).*

The light apparatus will be placed at twenty-five metres above the ground, and will be one hundred and three metres above the level of the sea.

This light-house will be visible in clear weather at the distance of seven marine leagues.

Mariners, steering for Antibes from the eastward, will see at the same time, as they approach Villefranche, the fixed light of the tower at that port (situated by 43° 40' 30" lat. and 4° 59' 26" east longitude), the intermitting light at the entry of the port of Antibes (situated by 43° 35' 10" lat.

* Meridian of Paris.

and 4° 47' 31" east longitude), and the fixed light of the Garoupe; but this last-named light house alone will be seen by mariners approaching by the south and south west, until they have doubled the peninsula.

Whitehall, May 25, 1837.

The following Address of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland having been transmitted by the Right Honourable Robert Montgomery Lord Belhaven, His Majesty's Commissioner, to the Right Honourable Lord John Russell, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been by him presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

May it please your Majesty,

WE have received, with sentiments of the most profound respect, the gracious Letter with which your Majesty has honoured this meeting of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

We accept with the most lively gratitude, the sanction which your Majesty has given to our present meeting, and the expressions of your Majesty's satisfaction with the proofs which we have afforded of our zeal in the maintenance of the Protestant religion, and of our loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

We return our respectful and heartfelt thanks to your Majesty, for the assurances so strongly expressed in your Majesty's gracious Letter, that the Church of Scotland, as by law established, shall at all times continue to partake of your Majesty's fullest protection, and that it will be your Majesty's study to secure it in the possession of all its rights and privileges.

The deep interest with which your Majesty has regarded our deliberations in former Assemblies, and the confidence which your Majesty entertains that they will be conducted on the present occasion with the calmness and dignity becoming the grave subjects which we are called to discuss, will, we are persuaded, be fully responded to by all the Members of this General Assembly.

The appointment of the Right Honourable Lord Belhaven, a Nobleman distinguished both for his private and public virtues, and for his zealous attachment to our National Church, to be your Majesty's representative in this Assembly, affords us unmingled satisfaction, and we regard it as a proof of your Majesty's attention to the General Assembly.

We receive with gratitude your Majesty's donation of two thousand pounds, for propagating Christian knowledge in the Highlands and Islands of Scotland; more especially we return our warmest thanks to your Majesty for the additional sum of six thousand pounds, for extending the unspeakable blessing of religious education in that part of your Majesty's dominions. It shall be our endeavour to apply both these sums faithfully and prudently, so as to accomplish, under the Divine blessing, the pious purposes contemplated by your Majesty.

That Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, may bless your Majesty, your Royal Consort the Queen, and every Member of your Royal House, with every temporal and spiritual blessing; that He may prolong your days; that He may direct and prosper your Government; and that, after a happy and peaceful reign, you may receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away, are the fervent prayers of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful, most loyal, and most obedient subjects, the Ministers and Elders of this General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and by our appointment,

Matt. Gardiner, Moderator of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.
